

PARENT PARTICIPATION

TO PARTICIPATE IN A CHILD'S EDUCATION IS A BASIC RIGHT AND RESPONSIBILITY OF EVERY PARENT

Alfonso Borrego Sr. Elementary School holds to the ideal that the entire family is essential in order to obtain a high level of student achievement. Therefore, we highly encourage parents and family to engage as educational partners. In doing so, we must create for each family a welcoming and safe learning environment. In accordance with our mission statement Alfonso Borrego Sr. Elementary School will support the development, implementation, and evaluation of parent involvement policies, programs and services at our school. Based on the National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement, [a section of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA)] the following are our definitions of the methods used to achieve a quality Parent Involvement Program.

HOME/SCHOOL COMMUNICATION

Communication between the school and home is used to promote parent involvement. It is important that all parents are well informed regarding their student's educational progress, ways to support their child's learning, and important information about our school including ways to become involved. Staff development will help staff with strategies to promote effective parent involvement. Borrego Elementary will provide information to teachers, special instruction, support personnel, principals, and other leaders with the assistance of parents in the value and utility of contribution of parents and families. The following are the systems in place to facilitate parental involvement and communication:

- Parent Handbook
- Parent/Teacher Conferences
- Social Work Services
- Parent Information Night
- School Website
- Student Assessment Results
- School & Home Compact
- One to One Conference
- Report Cards/Progress Reports
- Counselor Services
