Kiwanis Foundation R Hauk Press Release

Randall Hauk, owner of Randall's in Cottonwood, has been recognized for his spirit of generosity in the Verde Valley in support of our youth and many communities causes. The Kiwanis Foundation of Clarkdale/ Verde has created a scholarship at Mingus Union High School in his honor which will be annually awarded to a worthy graduating senior.

Randall's mode of operation is to offer to worthy youth or community causes meals for only the cost of the food prepared. He has done this repeatedly throughout the years, some examples of this in the past have been the dinner celebrating the Statehood of Arizona held in Clarkdale in 2012 and the 90th Breakfast Celebration of the Clarkdale / Verde Kiwanis Club held this last October. Mingus Union High School's teams, clubs, staff, retired teachers and churches have benefited from his talent as a culinary master and generous heart and spirit.

Randall is a Mingus Union High School graduate when the school was still "on the mountain" in Jerome. He is a self taught cook having worked in the Verde Valley for over 44 years for various restaurants. On March 1, 1999 he took over Michael D's and opened "Randall's Restaurant" and continues to successfully operate it to this day. He and his wife, Linda, live in Clarkdale. Linda is often seen helping with the preparation of the food and the serving of it too. They have three children and three grandchildren.

Any citizen wishing to contribute to this scholarship please mail your contributions c/o Kiwanis Club of Clarkdale – Verde Nonprofit Foundation, P.O. Box 1311, Cottonwood, AZ 86324 or leave your donation at Randall's. All monies will be used in the annual scholarship awarded each year. Hats off to this outstanding citizen in our community.
