MAPLETON HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

A high school possesses many moods. There are moments of excitement, anxiety, gaiety and concentration. Facial expressions reflect these varied emotions.

In this yearbook we want to present the uniqueness of Mapleton High School. Thus the selection of our theme, FACES, evolved. Through photographs one penetrates the thoughts and receives an understanding of the subject. Each picture reflects the spirit, devotion and loyalty which separates our school from all others.

The pages of the 1964-1965 Yearbook now unfold for your observation. Treasure this yearbook. It recreates a vital portion of your life. Time can never erase the memories each picture will recall.

The students of Mapleton and Highland High Schools presented the Scottish musical, "Brigadoon" to delighted audiences on March 11, 12, and 13. The overwhelming success of the production was due to combined efforts on the part of the students and faculty. The acting, singing, dancing, and sets were done by the students. The faculty provided direction and orchestral accompaniment. Faculty members who put in many long hours and hard work were: Mr. Larry Clinton, Dramatics Director; Mr. J. D. Folsom, Orchestra Director; Mr. Robert Miller, Choir Director; and Mrs. Susan Thompson, Piano Accompaniment. Many thanks go to everyone who helped make the musical a success.

COLOR DAY

Profile in courage

The Third Annual Color Day at Mapleton High School was held on May 24, 1965. It was sponsored by the graduating class of 1965. The highlight of the day was the classic Junior-Senior "Tug-of-War," which saw the Junior girls flex their muscles over the Senior girls. However, the Senior boys went on to even things for a "red faced" Senior class.

BASEBALL

JUST FOR THE RECORD

When the dust cleared, the Falcon Baseball Team found itself with one win and eleven losses in league play. Although the Falcon baseballers were not in contention for the league championship they were nevertheless the most respected team in the Skyline League. It is true that the win-loss column is not too impressive a record for the season, however, true champions are measured in terms of spirit, enthusiasm, and team play. Accordingly, we can say that we have had a championship team in the true sense of the word. Coach Ben Brauch and Coach Rich Sachoff have their eye on the 1965-66 baseball season for they are eager to field a young, but experienced Falcon squad which is sure to give Skyline League teams a real battle for the league title. The Year-book Staff would like to dedicate this year's baseball section to a couple of hard working guys—Coach Brauch and Coach Sachoff.

DEDICATION

It is our pleasure to dedicate the 1965 Falcon yearbook to Mr. Gosper A. Ferrero.

Mr. Ferrero has been a member of our School Board for more than twenty years. Serving on the school board is a job of great importance for which no salary, and often very little credit or recognition, is given. Great amounts of time and effort are devoted to this vital part of our school system. These years of service he has given are a result of a deep interest in the community, the schools, and the young people in the area.

Our yearbook is a reflection of the students of Mapleton High and of the work of many people like Mr. Ferrero in building a fine school, and in preparing the students to be better individuals in our world of today and tomorrow.

MR. GOSPER FERRERO
