1971-1972

I am a human being whatever that may be.

I

Speak for all of us who move and feel and whom time consumes

I
speak as an individual unique in a universe beyond my understanding and I speak for man

I am hemmed in by limitations of sense and mind and body of place and time and circumstance some of which I know but most of which I do not

I
am like a man journeying through a forest, aware of occasional glints of light overhead, with recollections of the long trail I have already traveled and conscious of wider space ahead I want to see more clearly where I have been and where I am going,

And

above all I want to know why I am where I am . . .

... and why I am traveling at all

The frontiers of the mind are just beginning to be discovered, and the spiritual world surrounding us yet remains a complete mystery.

Nature gets credit which should in truth be reserved to ourselves; the rose for its scent, the nightingale for his song, and the sun for its radiance. The poets are entirely mistaken. They should address their lyrics to themselves and should turn them into odes of self-congratulations on the excellency of the human mind. Nature is a dull affair, soundless, scentless, colorless, merely the hurrying of material, endlessly, meaninglessly.

And now that its' all over. the birds can nest again.
I'll only snow when the sun comes out,
I'll shine only when it starts to Rain.
And if you want a drink,
Just squeeze my hand
And wine will flow into the land. for I am a mirror.
I can reflect the moon.
I will wright songs for you.
I'll be your silver spoon.
I'm sorry I took your time.
I'm the poem that doesn't rhyme.

I'll waste away.

I'll waste away

I'll waste away
