JUST A BUNCH OF FACES

These sophomores crowd together to show us their best faces.

HOW CUTE!

Make your cutest faces, Erica Ortega and Justin Huff have got them down pat.

WHAT A BUMMER

By the look on Callie Myhaver's face she's not enjoying whatever it is she's doing. Maybe 3 years in high school is too much.

DIVERSITY

So many different faces, yet they all look so good.

SAY AGH

One of Jules Burns' many, every day psycho faces. Hey, no one said everyone's normal. You show off your unique self.

I'M A HAPPY PERSON

Contrary to popular belief, not everyone thinks school is all bad, take Chelsie Kiesel for example. She tries to be optimistic through everything and does a pretty good job at keeping happy during stressful times.

HOTTIE ALERT

These "stuck up faces" of Mike Diaz and Dwayne Johnson don't show their true personalities, but such looks are still easy to find in the halls around Skyview.

WHATS GOING ON?

I have never seen such confused looks! Anastacia Crowe, Candice Quintana and Patsy Garcia obviously aren't paying attention to any cameras. Over here girls!

Returning Faces

Been around for a while

WOW!

Now that's a smile! Look out Nikki Taylor, Lindsey Delgado's taking over Cover Girl.

WHAT STUDS!

Andrew Lovoto, Brandon Lambert and Brandon McLaughlin know they're cuties. But get back to work and don't show it off too much.

DR. DOMINGUEZ

Wipe off that intelligent face, Mark, you can't fool us. But don't worry, it's still adorable.

One among many

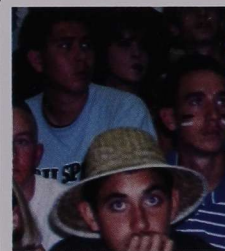

LOVE THAT FACE

Lloyd Martinez flashes an innocent face at the camera. He knows just the right looks to make a girl swoon.

HE HE-HA HA

Genny Halliwell cracks up about something, but isn't that the usual look for her. We all know that she's not alone.

CONCENTRATE A LITTLE HARDER

These juniors certainly enjoyed the pep assembly, along with everyone else. Just look at their faces!

RETIREMENT TIME

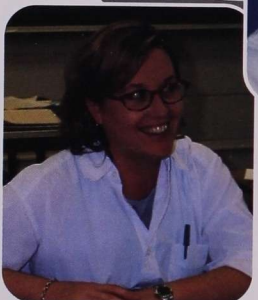

Mrs. Linder's retiring after 31 great years here. She says she's going to miss other teachers and working with teens because she likes to laugh at and with them and that they keep her young.

WHAT A FACE

Ms. Egbert looks beyond shocked. I guess that's what happens when you work at SHS for so long.

New faces in a crowd

Fresh faces view SHS

Top: Ninth grader Ashleigh Jayne eyes the camera man suspiciously. This business of a high school size yearbook can be terrifying when the camera flashes.

Middle: Freshman James Goldtrap says that being a fresh SHS face isn't all that bad. He's met a lot of new people and upperclassmen have treated him pretty well.

“The best part of being a new teacher is getting to know the kids. The worst is catching people up.”
-Ms. Elaine Brown

THE FACE OF SPIRIT

These freshman faces were painted to show their spirit at the homecoming parade. It was probably the only day in October that the sun failed to show her face.

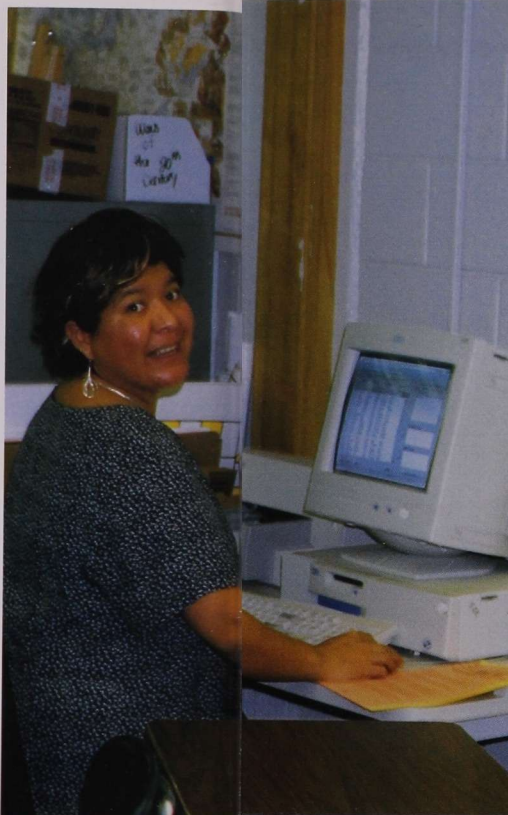

EXHUBERANT FACES

Freshman Lawrence Perez strikes an enthusiastic pose as he prepares to head out for a field trip. Everyone enjoys a learning experience that takes them away from the classroom.

IN, ER' ON, YOUR FACE!

Freshmen David Garcia, Shawna Lopez, Adriana Acosta, and Michelle Sanchez whoop it up at the Homecoming parade. Their enthusiastic faces and voices carried over to a SHS win over Adams City in a Saturday snowstorm game.

FACING UP TO TECHNOLOGY
Ms. Castro, new to SHS this year after several years at York and John Dewey, works diligently at her computer.
Freshmen Marc Cisneros, Holly Wilderman and Carmen Dexter anxiously peer into a technology lab.
Freshman Sara Young looks really nervous about trying to find a library book on the computerized system.
Freshmen Maria White and Elizabeth Lammert practice keyboarding skills during their Freshman Seminar class. All 9th graders are required to develop technology skills as part of this year.

Freshman Ryan Craig expresses his frustration with the computer work to meet his yearbook deadline.

Face up to this

Freshman Mike Ferrington knows exactly where he's headed. Standing outside the door to room 21B it looks like he's checking in to Ms. Acosta's room for a Spanish lesson.

Parlez-vous francais? Freshman Amanda Lavely practices her French during the ten minute break between blocks. While some enjoyed the long breaks to visit with friends, others like Amanda must cram.

Even ninth graders own cell phones. Freshman Kelly Hernandez catches up on all the gossip during her lunch hour. While phones aren't allowed in classes, they keep people in touch during free time.

"Thanks for the memories," says Freshman Bernadette Garcia. During Homecoming week, many upperclassmen took Frosh to lunch to show a little SHS spirit.

You've got the cutest little baby-face. Freshman Adrian Paolucci sports a ne "tipped" hair do, which he hopes will make him look a little older.

Now this is what I call spirit!

1. Not only does Skyview have great school spirit, but we're also good at showing it with a variety of colors. Where else do you find a school like this?

2. Crossdress?

Gabe Hatcher, Mike Deaguero, and Louie Lorenzo show off their so called feminine figures.

SLIP and SLIDE
 In slippery and wet conditions, the Wolverines plucked the Eagle's feathers in the nick of time.

GO DEFENSE !!
 #55 plows through the Eagles to impart thier blocking. It takes a skilled team to really pull through on a cold October day.

"COME ON SENIORS!"
 Senior Nick Rounds watches a powder puff play while he cheers for the senior girls. It isn't as easy as it looks!

LITTLE MS. SMILE
 Although DeeAnn Needham is freezing, she looks like she is in a good enough mood to cheer for Skyview during a huddle.

Connection Crew/ Peer Counseling

New Choices and Peer Counseling!
Something everyone should have to experience.

What would we do without these two? Mr. Tilsley and Mr. Byrd are always finding new, fun activities for both the freshmen and the people in New Choices to do. It's a hard job, but somebody's got to do it!

The people who make everything work

Here she comes to save the day!!!

Crystal Kennedy is a college student who serves as a trainer/tutor within the New Choices- Peer Counseling classes. She helps out in many different ways and we sure are glad she chose our school.

Study Hard!

Siobhan Barros, a graduated Skyview student and now a CU Boulder student, also tutors here on top of her busy life schedule.

Way to work Buddy!

Waiting patiently for a question to be asked, Mugsy Perez organizes and separates the many, many papers within the Connection Crew/New Choices Room.

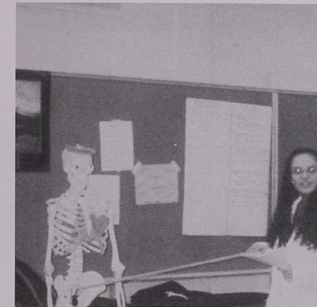

Look at her go!

As a tutor, Vanessa Otto strives hard to help anyone who needs it. She can always manage to lend a helping hand.

Wake up freshmen!
Mr. Byrd is trying his hardest to keep these kids interested and informed.

Who's the leader of the pack?
Stephanie Knott shows encouragement and enthusiasm to her fellow underclassmen.

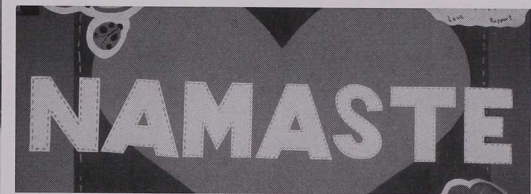

What a bunch!

This is a group of upperclassmen who dedicate their time to helping students throughout the school. If you need someone to listen, give advice, or just plain acknowledge your existence, these are the people to run to. That's their specialty.

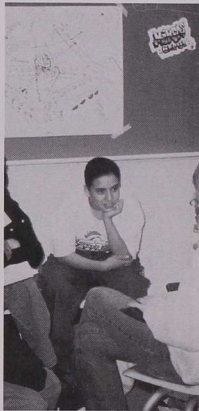

Smile Pretty!

This fine group of upperclassmen are paving the way for the freshmen here at Skyview. Being a connection crew leader means putting others first and making sure that they succeed in life. Keep up the good work people!

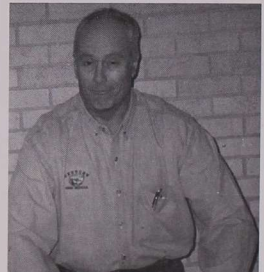

Dr. Feliz

Not only does she do check-ups on how you are feeling, but she also gives you the right amount of medicine you need to fix your problems. Here, she is doing her final presentation in New Choices.

Connection Crew and Peer Counseling are alike in many ways. Each class has groups which the P.C.'s and C.C.'s run, each does fun activities and each class gets the privilege of working with the tutors. Connection Crew is a little different in the sense that they work with freshmen and do a lot of homework related things, while New Choices is a class to express the ways in which people represent themselves.

"I'm really excited about the new technology because it allows us to be more consistent but it's also frustrating because it can cause us to fall behind." -Mrs. Hill, Yearbook advisor.

This first year has been a little less than I'd anticipated, but we have definitely got many years ahead to improve. -Mr. Dorsey, Photo Club advisor.

It's an art, not a science.

A Mirror Image. Monica Ayala has quite some talent in the photo arts department. It's truly mind shattering.

Behind Bars. This photograph represents life... behind bars. Okay, rather elegant bars.

Working my fingers to the bone. Natalie Salazar escapes to the phone room for a little peace and quiet. Deadlines... deadlines.

Picture Perfect. Yearbook Staffers, Chuck Washburn, Ryan Craig, and Monica Ayala present The Trials and Tribulations of Yearbook 2000. Now Playing.

What makes these clubs so worthwhile?

"Yearbook? Ugh, you have no idea. It's demanding, but the outcome is worth it." -Chelsie Kiesel, 11

"Yearbook teaches you a lot about how much you can handle... stress is good." -Natalie Salazar, 12

"Photo Club caught my interest so I joined. It's more independent than anything though." -Leanne Lawson, 9

"Nothing really, I just try to get involved in as many things as possible." -Sean Langden, 9

Skyview Choir

Where you sing, make new friends, discover new ways to express yourself, and learn. All this and more can be found through participation in Skyview's vocal music programs.

EMD performs "I'm gonna wash that man right outa my hair," from the musical South Pacific. This casual pop choir meets before school and performs show tunes.

THE DIFFERENT FACES OF CHOIR

Sky's the Limit

Getting into the Christmas spirit, Sky's the Limit spreads a little yuletide cheer. The Holiday Concert is a popular attraction each year, and this one was no exception.

Silver Lining

Singing in the Skyview auditorium, this select choir shows everyone what they're made of at the spring concert. Performance is just a part of everyday school life for the members of choir.

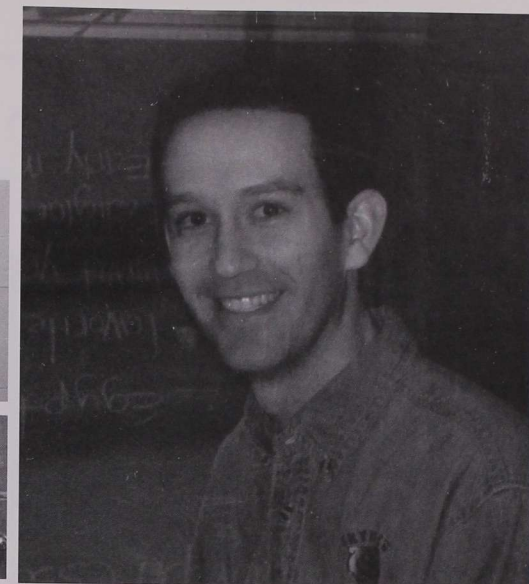

SHS MEN'S CHOIR

A new addition to the vocal music department this year is the Skyview men's choir. Because there are not enough hours in the school day to support all the choirs students want to join, this one meets before school. Parents and students alike enjoyed this performance at the spring concert. All that early morning work paid off.

"I guess Choir is cool, but the best part is you don't have any homework. I just wish we sang cooler songs." - Amanda Maynes, 9

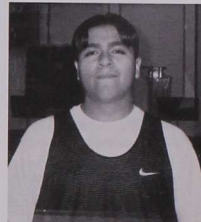

What made you join Choir? "I wanted to express myself and musical ability in a positive way, and I also have a chance to sing with others." - Desiree Salazar.

"I enjoy working with Concert Choir. I enjoy helping them work on their vocal abilities, that opens doors to musical possibilities." - Mr. Nozot.

What do you like/dislike about choir?

"Unlike most other classes, there is NO homework!" - John Silva, 10

If you could change anything about Choir, what would it be? Would you recommend Choir to anyone?

"The songs we sing, they are terrible." - Brenda Hartford, 9

Yes, if they enjoy singing and like new experiences." - Deonna Smith, 9

Thinking About The Future...

FBLA and FCCLA are only two of the many clubs Skyview has to offer. Students not only prepare and learn about the future, they have fun at the same time. It takes a lot of hard work but it's worth it!!

Giving their dedication 100% of the time makes these hard working clubs so special. We have to thank them for their expertise on knowing how to make our school so individual.

FACE THE FACTS

A "Fresh" Look at SHS

As the class of 2003 entered Skyview, they were faced with brand new classes designed especially for them. In an effort to support first year students academically, Freshman Seminar is required of all entering ninth graders. The instructors for these classes focus on organizational skills, self awareness, basic literacy skills, and use of computer technology. Most students enjoy the class, and feel that the skills they learn will help them in their lives.

One particularly committed group of ninth graders are those who are involved in the new AVID program. They have signed a contract in which they agreed to do two hours of homework each night and take demanding college prep classes. The AVID program supports this effort in various ways. AVID students all share the same Freshman Seminar class.

This group of freshmen decides they need to take a break, since they have such a busy schedule. Freshmen are required to take all eight classes.

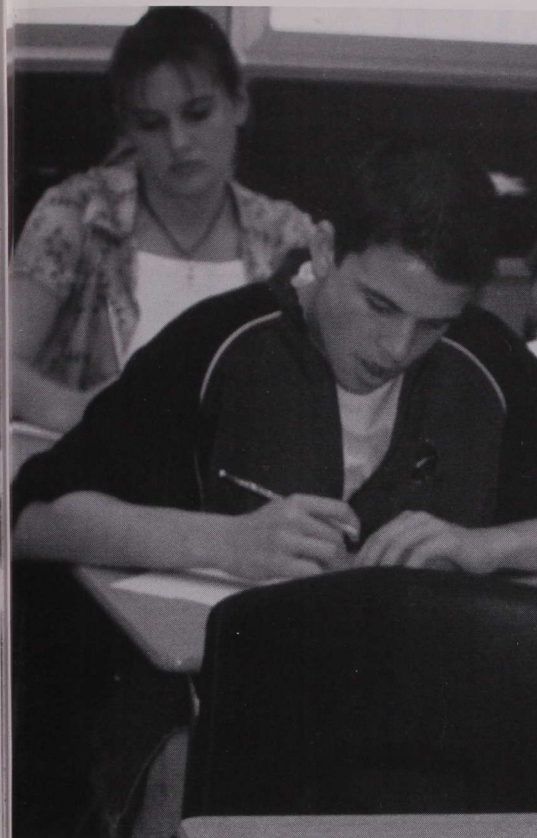

All of this work.

Hard working AVID team members look at the homework facing them. If you've seen their three inch thick notebooks, you know it's no cakewalk.

Fooling around!

Study hard!

Is the day over yet?

Mr. Byrd lounges around hoping to go home soon. He is the AVID class advisor and works with Mr. Tilsley in Freshman Seminar.

Future architect.

Nick Lewis works hard at designing his future home. Working with the computers is required in Freshman Seminar.

What kind of change has there been from junior high to high school?

"The classes have gotten tougher, and you can't fool around as much."
Crystal Eng

"I have learned a lot of responsibility."
Jill Martinez

*"The maturity of people."
Miguel Pinedo.*

"There are so many more classes."
Lindsey Cook

"It's hard to stay eligible for the sports."
Melissa Crockett

All Hands On

Showing their creative side, Lyndsey Delgado and Dustin Welch create the FBLA Christmas display right across from Mr. Sauers room.

"Interior decorating is fun because it is a challenge. You have to know how to measure, draw floor plans, choose colors and get to decorate a client's house. I like this class because it is very motivational. Skyview is doing a great job on having hands-on classes."

Ms. Gray Hamburg

Trying to do her work, Angie Petrie works diligently to finish her job description manual for Business Ed.

Skyview offers a variety of different types of hands-on classes such as Design, Watercolor, Photography, Bakery and Catering, Child Development, Interior Decorating, Fashion, Business Ed, Intro to Tech, Teen Parenting and Moving Out. But there is always more room for suggestions. (Hint, Hint, Hint.)

Sitting in Ceramics class Ben Salazar and Nicole Staff work on their final projects. Ceramics is really fun because you get to actually get your hands dirty."

Future classes???

"I like Statistics because you get to learn different types of math. I would like to see more clubs."

Dolores Garcia

"I like Bakery because I get to cater. I would like to see a metal class were I can build things out of metal."

Jeff Johnson

"KIDS LIKE HANDS ON CLASSES BECAUSE THEY CAN LEARN USEFUL TIPS THAT WILL HELP THEM IN THIER FUTURE."

Ms. ARDUESER

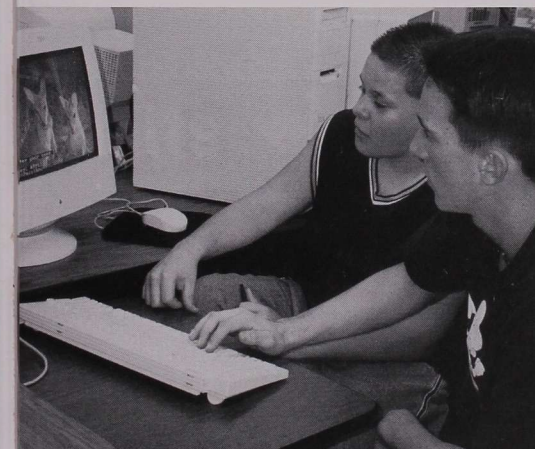

"I like taking hands on classes because it allows me to be creative. I would like to see a computer science class."

Matt Campbell

"I like independent classes because you are independent and are not being lectured. I would like to see an animation class."

Janelle Chaney

Matt Bahl and William Taylor work on the computer in Mr. Sauer's Intro to Tech class.

"I like design because it is a class that you can be creative in. I have been taking this class for only one semester. I would like to see more hands on classes that add on to some of the classes we have now."

Excuses, Excuses, Excuses!!!

Excuses are something that everyone uses some time in their lives. Excuses are used in even the smallest situations. Everyone has an excuse for something, from the class president to the class clown. They're a fact of life, no one can get through life without them. They can save you but then again, they can catch you in the end. So remember, if someone tells you there is no excuse, that's just because they can't think of one themselves.

We asked a couple of students at Skyview what their favorite excuses were, here's what they had to say:

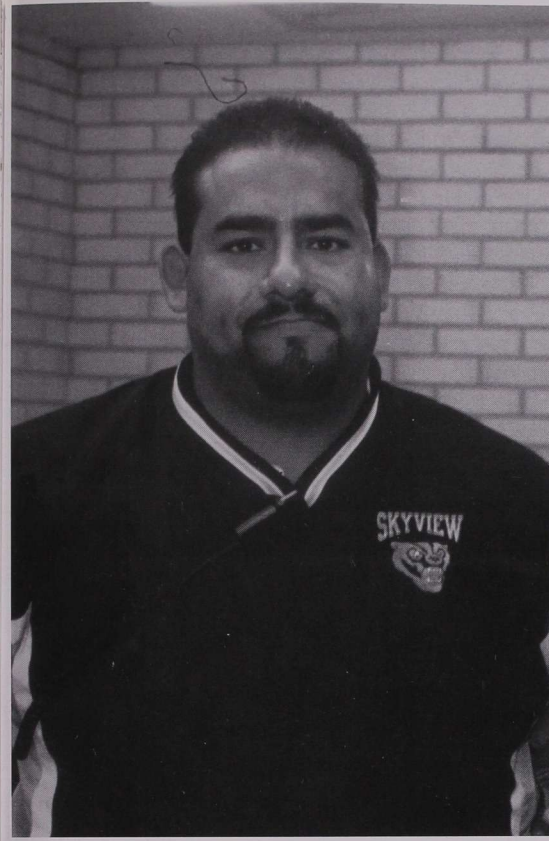

"I fell asleep on my paper."
Katie Crumrine

"I didn't know what we were doing because I was ill."
Michelle Frazier

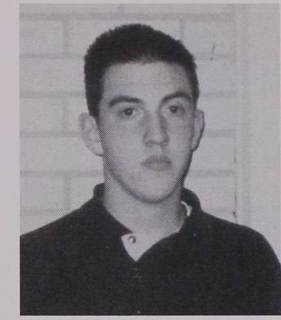

When asked what excuse he uses to get out of class, John Castaneda told us, he says he has to go to the photo room. Oh John, what would Mr. Dorsey say?

When asked what the worst excuse that you've ever come up with was, Sophomore Tenaya Salano replied, "My dog threw up on it." And Sophomore Jamie Anderson told us, "I don't know where I'm supposed to be."

I've heard them all!!
Dan, the security guard, has heard almost every excuse at Skyview. The best one that he's heard is, "I've been having a bad day, I just need a cigarette to calm down."

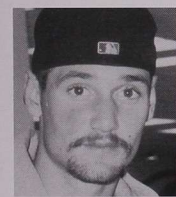

Going to other "class rooms" is a great way to get out of class. Travis Emsbach goes to "the computer lab to print up a paper for another class."

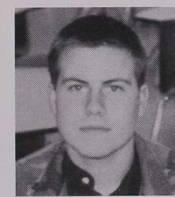

When asked what the lamest excuse that you've used to get out of class Francine Ortega told us that "migraines and back pains usually work well", and Jamie Baca said that she says she has to take her sister home.

The best and the worst excuses in Skyview

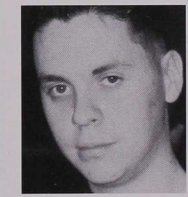

"My dog whizzed on my homework."
- Jack Farrington

"I really don't have an excuse for anything."
- Michael Gilham

The first excuse in history.
"My dinosaur ate my homework."
- Unknown

"I usually don't use excuses. I just say I don't want to do it."
- Jeff Johnson

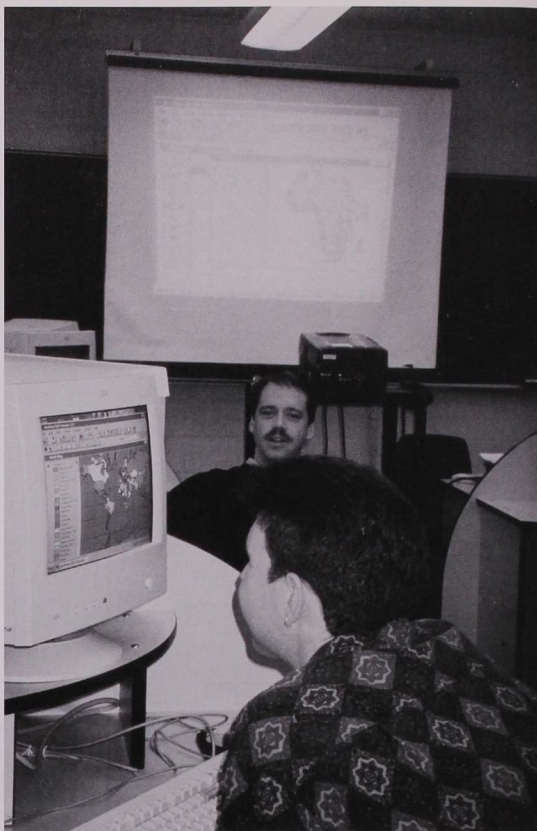

"I had to take my grandma to the hospital for an appointment."
- Cory Lambert

Mr. Booth stares at the GIS program that he has been studying in an after school staff development class with Mr. Pratt. With all the new technology in the building, teachers need to get training to stay current in their teaching methods.

Copy Queen!
Irene Derouen uses her copy knowledge in the copy center, helping out a needy teacher. Just another example of technology working for us!

Teacher's Pet
Chase McBride helps Mrs. Miller teach the class on her high tech over-head calculator.

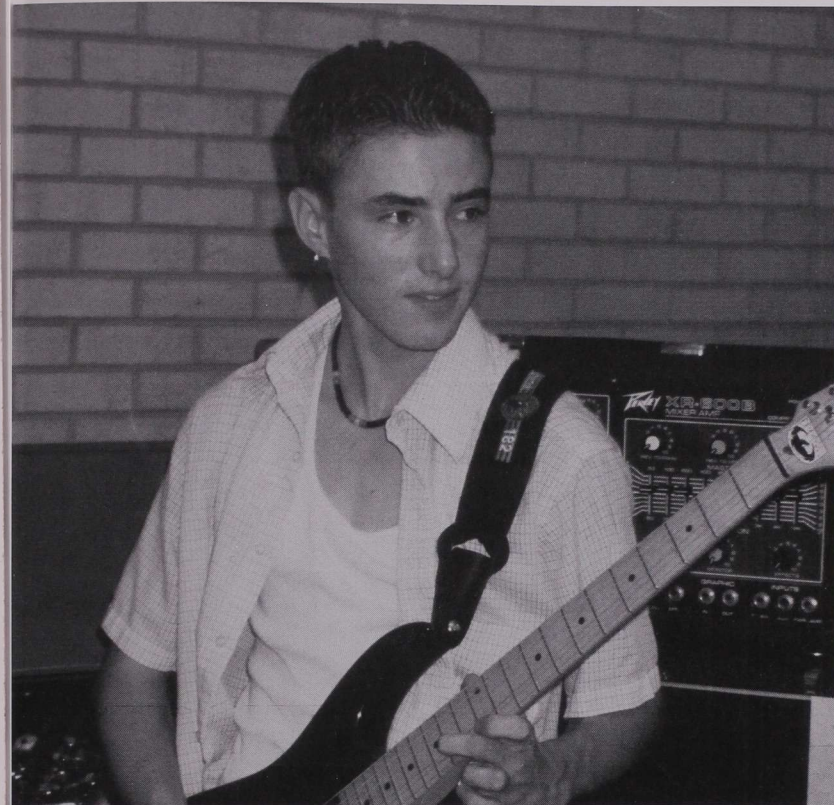

The Wonders of Technology

We are wired for the 21st century. All around the building, signs of technology and its importance for learning assault us. Any student enrolled in business classes at Skyview could tell you that without computers, digital cameras, scanners and the like, they had not had a complete dose of business education. During their freshman year, all 9th graders received technology basics through their Freshman Seminar classes.

Upperclassmen were able to enroll in such courses as Computer Assisted Drafting and Geography on the computer. A bank of computers popped up in the back of the mathroom, and 9th graders were seen doing power point presentations for their final assessments in some classrooms. No question about it; it looks like computers are here to stay!

Play that guitar!
Brandon McLaughlin shows off his incredible technological skills on his guitar. Move over Santana, there's some real talent here!

Technology helps teach and learn in so many ways!

Computers are so helpful!
Sara Collins, the library para, keeps busy showing students how to properly use computers and check out library books. Everyone needs help sooner or later.

"Technology makes our school run more smoothly... when it works!"

-Michael Moore
Sophomore

Emily Clark works hard and concentrates in the CADD lab to finish all of her difficult assignments on time.

Junior Patrice Hernandez takes a break from year-book to check in on her "boy toy." You have to love that we have phones in school.

What a secretary!
Ms. Porterfield often gets stressed out from answering telephone calls, working on the computer, and just taking care of our school. She looks like she could use a break.

Computer Whiz!
Brianna Silvers looks for a library book on the computer. Technology seems to make learning so much easier!

Would You Do it???

Weird Assignments

"Once in biology I had to dissect a cow's eye! I'm still trying to figure out the purpose of the whole thing. I'd do it again because it was fun!"
 -Cory Lanbert

"Weird assignments are cool because they teach you that learning can be both strange and fun."

-Jules Burns

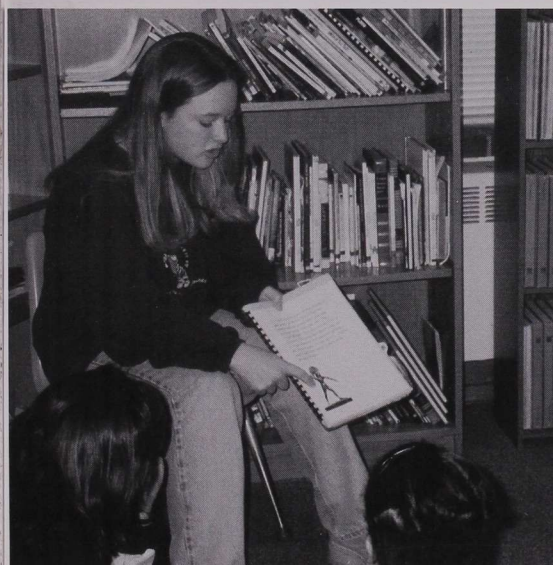

"Whether normal or not, work is work and I don't like work."

-Irene DeRouen

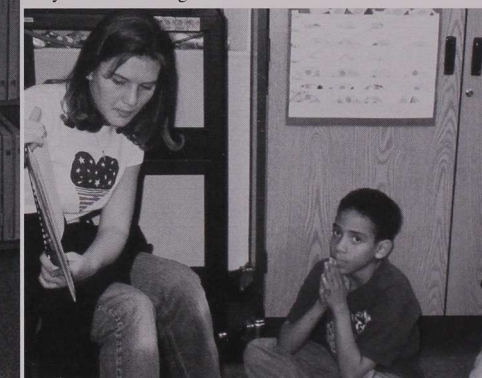

"Once in Teen Challenges we had to wear a pregnancy suit. It was pretty weird but it taught us a lot of responsibility. I didn't like how it burdened my social life, but you learn to cope. I liked it but I would never do it again."

-Rachell Stocken

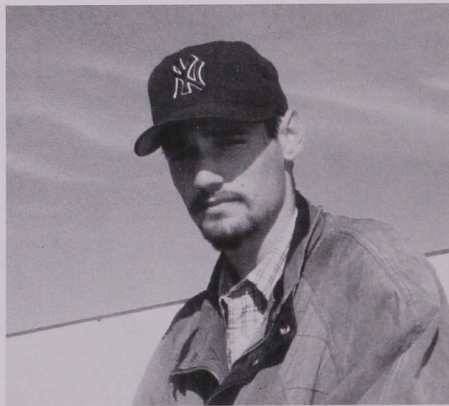

These two pictures look like a scene out of kindergarten. Heidi Brubaker and Lindy Kesterke wrote children's storybooks about Greece for World History and English, then went to Monterey Elementary to read to 4th graders.

Not Everyone Likes To Learn With Just Their Minds!!!

HANDS ON LEARNING

"I like hands on learning because I think it is a better learning experience. My favorite type of hands on learning would have to be sports because it helps me vent aggression. My favorite hands on subject is art. Mr. Borg is also my favorite teacher."
-Jack Ferrigno

"At ease boys, all is well and the day should surely be ours!" At least that was what this confederate general thought before a historic battle would prove her wrong!

This group of competent "Yanks" is ready to save the day. The 10th grade Civil War battle simulation proved an excellent way to learn history.

"I've always liked hands on learning because it's a better alternative to writing page after page."
Fernando Herrera

"I think that hands on learning has always been a good idea. With out it who knows how many pages we would be writing!!!"

"I like art, it's a great class. We get to do more than just writing all the time. I like the painting and the drawing. You really get to be creative in art."

“College Prep Chemistry overwhelms me because of the evil tests!” Maybe Tasha Crowe should do a little studying.

According to Darren Fladung, Hisamoto is way too harsh on him in weight training. When he was asked which class overwhelms him the most he replied, “Weight training really overwhelms me because Hisamoto makes me do too much weight!” Maybe Darren is just not cut out for the class.

Without those who serve us in different ways, we wouldn't be...

Keeping it all together!!

Champions of Pickin' Up!! Where would we be without this fine task force to keep our building looking slick. For hours after we leave the building at 2:30, our custodians vacuum, mop, sweep, and wipe away the chalk dust. When we have to stay late at night to complete various assignments, they're always friendly. After dances and games, they're here to mop out the trash and clean away the tired decorations. Summers find them moving, painting, hauling, repairing, and polishing. It's a pretty thankless job, but this fine group does it well. Pictured above are head custodian Tom Shea, and his crew Vince Maynes, John Sedillo, Nancy Gomez, Eva Gonzalez, Jack Beaty, Tony Roble and Tony Rosa. Not pictured are Vickie Martinez, who was on "injured reserve" and Tony Martinez, who retired a few days later.

“This job is mostly about making others comfortable. I enjoy that.”

-Tom Shea ”

“I especially love the soft, hot cookies in the morning. How can I beat the three for a $1.00 price.”

-Gina Gaitan ”

Zach Mamuzich and Dan Jimenez, Skyview's much loved and feared security guards, show their softer side. They break out a broom and a mop to show that they are capable of doing kind things for others, not just busting kids for ditching and other Skyview no-nos. Although they make this job look easy, their security work can be very stressful -- just ask them!!

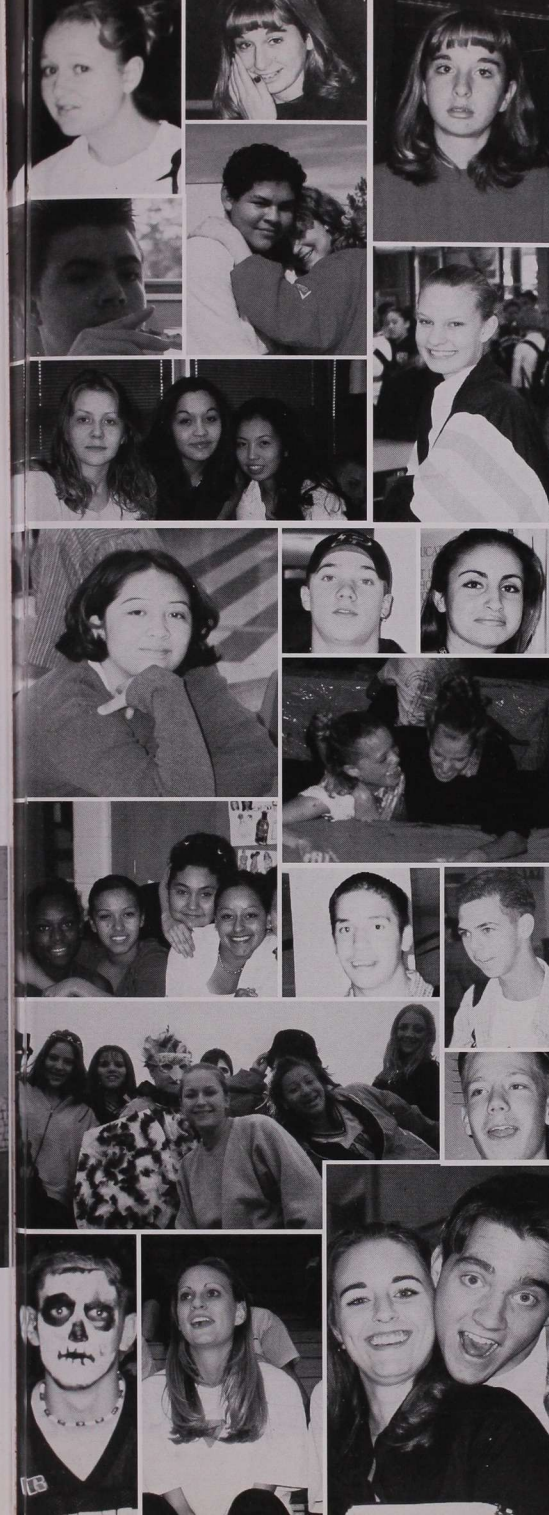

Pondering seriously his response to the staffer's question, security guard Dan Jimenez teases, "It's a real privilege to serve the dedicated student body of S.H.S." Can you say "HA?"

Jack, the cafeteria custodian, as he is known to many Skyview students, pauses for a moment as he takes a last run through the cafeteria at the end of the day. His positive attitude rubs off on students.

This smiling group of cooks has a lot to be happy about. They successfully feed nearly 1000 Skyview students and staff up to two meals a day, providing everything from warm soft cookies to taco salad and bottled water. Juanita and her crew keep busy from 6:00 a.m. to after 1:00 p.m. Lucky for them that Skyview is a one lunch period school.

Middle School Vs. High School

Being a freshman, many people come to like the high school scene. "I think Skyview is more fun than York was because of the guys! But most are immature."
-Alena Carper

"I like high school better because it gives us more freedom, I made more friends and I met the girl of my dreams."
-Mike Foster

"High school is much more fun, except for the fact that it is more stressful. I think high school shows who your true friends are other than just your middle school 'clique.'"

The crooked truth behind orthodontia...

Brace Yourself

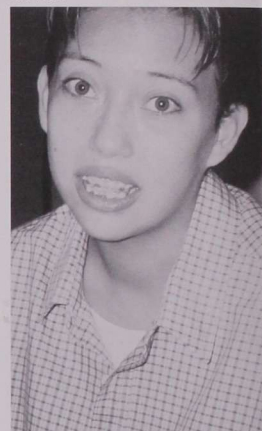

Faces with Braces. Freshmen Valerie Rice and Carla Harris take a break from all the daily rucuss to flash those beaming babies our way. But that's not all, there are four more years of orthodontia coming their way... Can anyone say retainer?

The absolute worst part about having braces is eating. Every time I eat, I get little pieces of food stuck in them. There are however, some advantages; I always have a snack for later!

The average orthodontia patient has braces for two and a half years. The average cost for those two and a half years is approximately between $1,200 and $2,300.

Metal Mouth. Freshman Christina Jaquez flashes those magnetic mouthpieces in hopes of picking up her favorite radio station's airwaves. Little does she know, that only works in the movies!

Turning 16, it's more than a job, it's an adventure!!

Does Wisdom Come With Age?

It's Party Time!! Turning 16 does have its advantages. Matt Allender believes that getting your license is the best part about it. Well, that and the party you get to have.

"There are only two good things about being 16. I get to stay out for an extra hour and there's a six in my age."

-Larry LaGuardia

"The best part about turning 16 isn't getting your license, it's your sweet sixteen party! Me and my friends partied hard on my birthday!"

-Jade Roy

The Sun Don't Always Shine!! Many people have a memorable sixteenth birthday, but some people, like Larry LaGuardia don't. He didn't have a party and didn't get his license but he did hang out with his friends. Just like any other day for some people.

As time zones welcome the new millennium on January 1, the world celebrates with grandeur, pageantry and spectacular fireworks. President Clinton gives a hopeful speech in the minutes before midnight at the Washington Monument, and 2 million people gather in Times Square to watch the specially built 1,000-pound Waterford crystal ball drop at midnight.

The public and private sectors spend hundreds of millions of dollars to ward off the Y2K bug. The world lets out a sigh of relief after midnight strikes and no major computer malfunctions occur.

The FBI warns of possible terrorist acts on New Year's Eve and stays on national alert throughout the celebration. After the arrest of one man with bomb-making materials, Seattle decides to cancel its Space Needle celebration.

Fearing the collapse of the world's banks, utilities and transportation systems, thousands of people stock up on food, water, money, ammunition and generators. After midnight, it soon becomes apparent that the preparations were unnecessary.

A surprising number of people, appalled by the exorbitant costs of travel and events, decide to stay home on New Year's Eve. Many companies and performers drastically slash prices as a last-minute lure.

FACING the FUTURE

Ah, those were the days!

What do you remember from Junior High?

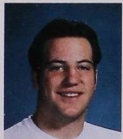

When Jesse and I locked Lloyd in the gym locker.

Gabe Vigil

Dressing up drag and dancing in the school play.

Jeremy Dutton

Needing to have someone's mom to drive us around and having to be home at nine.

Becca Hirst

Remember when everyone hung out at Biggs and went to Elitch's every weekend? It was o.k. to change boyfriends like we did nailpolish. Those were the days of junior high.

1. Who's Got Spirit? Jackie Duran has always shown her school spirit.
2. Camera Shy? Not this guy. Even in eighth grade, stud Gabe Vigil was ready to strike a pose.
3. Good Friends. Stephanie Streeter and Lanay Washington ham it up for the camera.
4. Is That Them? Yes these are the people that we call our seniors. This is York-8th gr.
5. To Serve and Protect. Jenica Gurule and Lori Large have always served their people.
6. You Go Stud!! Even now, like in eighth grade with Patricia Pinedo, Steve Vialpando thinks he's THE 'Ladies Man'.

"What...?"

Fifty Percent of York's population dated more than one person at a time.

Almost everyone had to be home by dark as a seventh grader.

Mariah Carey and Boyz II Men were the 'hit makers' of the time.

Forrest Gump was a favorite flick of the junior high kids.

John Dewey kids were always together. Cliques were non-existent.

“What...?”

Over half of the senior class regrets ditching all in all! There are also many of regrets about trusting “friends” with “top secret” info. 6 out of 10 times, the secret got out. Who says that doing “stupid things” is fun? Well it is. Or... at the time! Later, you regret and ask yourself “Why did I do that?” Keep in mind, you did it because you wanted to! Just remember to be smart about things and stay out of trouble!

=0)
The End!

If I could build a time machine and travel back in time.

1. Diana O'Young regrets not spending time with all her friends and not keeping in touch with the people she's known since elementary and junior high. I miss you guys!
2. Regrets, Ha! Well, maybe one! Jeff Johnson's only regret is “taking sooo long to realize my self-worth. I now know that I can't respect anything unless I respect myself.”
3. Here chicky chicky! Angelo Leonardo regrets “Not talking to more CHICS!!!”
4. Ditching is bad! When Particia Pinedo was asked what she regreted about high school, she stated that not taking her classes seriously and ditching is one of the worst things she could have done!
5. Life Lessons hurt! Beckie Jude is learning the hard way! She regrets not getting to know people until her senior year! “That only leaves me a year to get to know them!”

The one thing I regret doing was..

Ditching my freshman year. Now it's hard to get scholarships for college!
-Shannon DeLeon

Getting too close with your so-called “Bestfriends”, then getting stabbed in the back over and over again!
- Stephanie Streeter

Umm, let me pick... probably failing my math classes and having to cram them all in my senior year!!! Not fun!
- Susan Lor

Regrets aren't necessarily bad things. Almost everybody has them! Just remember, you don't have to regret anything! Everything happens for a reason and, good or bad, that's the way things are supposed to be! Always stay true to yourself and live your life to the fullest!

How Much?!?!

Candice Montoya

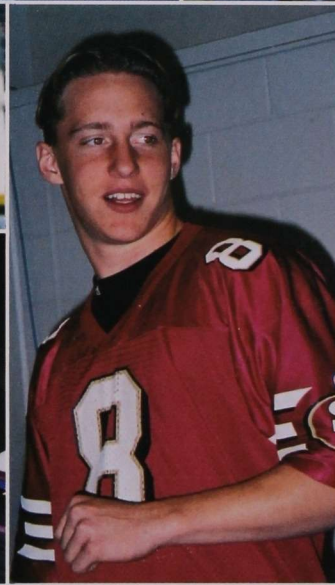

"Class ring, cap and gown, senior pictures, announcements."

Amanda Brown

What's the cost of being a senior? Go ahead, ask a senior! They would all say too much! And you know what? That is sooooo true! On the top of the list, Senior pictures come first. Second comes announcements then class rings. If you're going on the Senior Trip... WHOA BUDDY, start saving now!!!

1. Walking into the cafeteria, Jessie Kuhns realizes that it is too late to buy her cap -n- gown and her announcements.
2. Mark Tousky hesitates as the teacher calls on him.
3. Trying to decide what package and accessories to buy for announcements, Daniel Birley rushes as fast as he can to give his order to Balfour before they leave.
4. Trying to race the bell, Candice Montoya sits in the cafeteria trying to finish her English homework.

"what...?"

How much does it cost to be a senior?

Senior Pictures- $300-400.

Announcements-

$200-300.

Homcoming / Prom- $600-800.

Class ring- $450.

Class trip-1,500.

Total: $3,450

$300-400

Randall Photo's-

$300-350

What's your favorite??

When asked, "What's your favorite?" these seniors responded...

I love the Movie, "Message in a Bottle", the color pink, M&M's, football, #13 Subway, and the Dave Matthews Band.

Michelle Domenico

Burger King, "Ever After" (the movie), the song "I do", the color green, #20, Starburst Hard Candy, soccer and football, and yellow Camaro's.

Tina Groves

Wendy's is yummy, "City of Angels," Mobb Deep, '99 Jeep Cherokees, black, #3 and Milky Ways.

Lanay Washington

1. Got milk?? Natasha Garcia doesn't need milk to make her arms look good! I wouldn't want to meet up with her in a dark alley!
2. Chun Lee or Lori Large? From mooning unsuspecting drivers, to throwing candy at cars, this 'bunned' beauty knows how to have a good time!
3. Mark Tousky is a stud! Not only is he an all around great guy, but someone people will remember forever!
4. Uh, Hi! Willie Etheridge sits back and relaxes as fourth hour goes by thinking to himself, I wonder what we're doing in class right now?
5. These two are so adorably clueless. Jackie Duran and Stephanie Abeyta are just like Cher and Dion. Always together and wearing the cutest little outfits.

Dear Hing Pan, as your graduation day comes closer, our hearts fill with excitement and happiness. Also with great hopes that you can get into a good university and study the professional that interests you. That is the wish from the bottom of our hearts.

You are our wonderful son. You are gentle, loyal, and you give us so much joy and support. You are a valuable friend to so many people. You are friendly, outgoing, honest, and you are always there to help. All of these qualities won everyone's friendship. I am so proud and thankful of you. I hope that you will work very hard in your upcoming college life.

Mom & Dad

Over the course of the last four years I have had the privilege of getting to know and teach an individual that embodies what is best about today's youth. His name is Billy Wong. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for attending my classes semi-regularly and turning in most of your work. I wish you the best in the coming years. I have no worries as to whether or not you will become successful because "the wong way is the right way." Good luck and Congratulations, Billy.

Mr. Jacobs

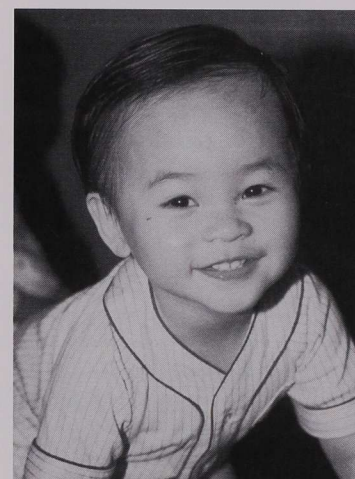

Our Sunshine...

Billy, you are so strong, hard-working, smart and yet so LAZY! But these are just some of the qualities that make you who you are. From the way I know you as a cousin, you can be one of the best listeners and the most patient guy I know. You've worked so hard for your car, your family, and for everything else that goes on ever since you've moved to America. You deserve the best that comes out of it all. You have always been there for me when I needed you, from family problems to boy problems. I want you to know always that you are one of the greatest cousins ever and a very special guy. Thank you for everything that you've done for me. I'm lucky to have such a great cuz looking out for me just like an older brother would. Best of luck through everything you decided to do and know that I'll always be there to help and support you in anyway I can.

Love Always, Your Cuz, Diana O'Young

Billy you are a special guy who has his priorities in order, knows himself, and has given much thoughts about life and what goals you want to reach. You have been a true friend that cares and is not afraid to speak your mind or give your honest opinion. I am proud to be your friend and I wish you the very best that life has to offer.

Joe Antista

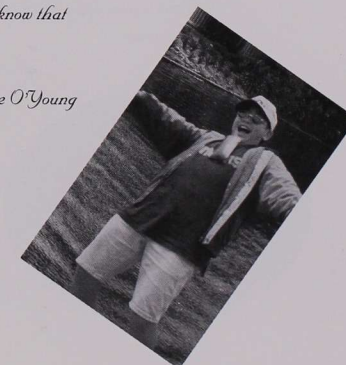

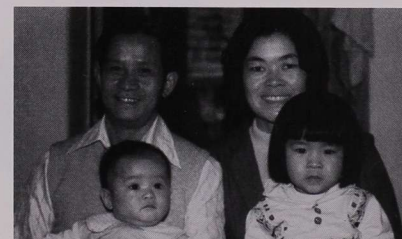

Billy, the only student who spent his entire high school career in Pre-Calculus and Calculus. You are probably one of the most talented math students to attend Skyview but unfortunately, we couldn't keep you on task long enough to see most of your ability! I have enjoyed having you around the past four years. It has been a pleasure knowing you and I wish you all the best.

Janet Miller

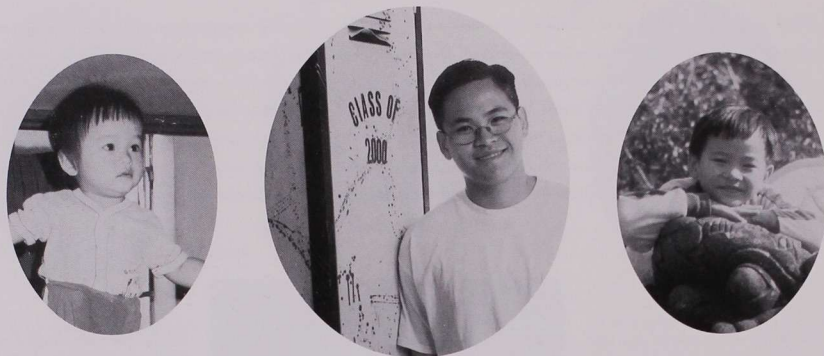

Billy, you are considered to be a very admired model in my life. Many people look at you as a very mature and friendly person. Your intelligent, but cautious mind led you to be the great person you are now. The adventurous and energetic part of you helped develop your great personality. Every time I had gotten in trouble, in a situation, have a problem; You were always there to get me out, help me through. Just want to let you know that I appreciate everything about you.

As your cousin and your friend, I would like to congratulate you.

Bruce O'Young

Our Pride...

To my dearest brother, Billy,

It has been a long time, but I can still remember playing badminton with you in the park, riding bikes along the coast, and ah... how can I forget... taking care of you and tons of luggages during our trip to Hong Kong... You sure were a troublesome little brother. Look at you now... a handsome, mature, hard-working young man who cares about his family and friends. Who would believe that you were once that chubby little menace?

You have grown so much throughout these years. Not only you have gained some muscles, you have acquired invaluable experience. You have accomplished so much - more important than schoolwork, you have won many priceless, lifelong friends. You bring smiles and sunshine to everyone around you. And you achieved all of these through kindness and your pure, gentle heart.

Although there are times I wonder how we could possibly be related. But I have always known that no friendship could ever come closer to what we share as brother and sister. That is because we've lived under the same roof and have seen each other's best and worst. We learned together how to compromise and share, how to invent our own kind of fun, how to make peace after a disagreement, and how to trust each other with our personal feelings and dreams. I think it is great that we understand each other's personality so well and accept have and each other as we are. A friend can share a lot of things, but not the same family jokes and loyalties. We may not share the same goals, but we share a bond that can never broken...

*I don't often tell you this, but I just want to let you know how proud and grateful I am
... to be your sister.*

Our Hing Pan

Believe in yourself, a bright and beautiful future awaits you...

*You are the kind of person, who can do anything
you put your mind to,*

*I've seen you done it,
Time after time;*

*You can overcome any obstacles,
I know you can do it,
Because... I know you...*

*So for it, go make your dreams come true, and never forget, not for a single moment, that I am right there behind you, rooting for you, every step of the way.
Congratulations and best wishes in the road of life...*

*Forever and Always,
Sis,
Hing Ka*

*Thank you...
for being my brother...
Thank you...
for being you...*

Diana & Young

Sis,
You've made a great difference in my life. You were always there for me, bringing out the positive things in my life. I wish for you to have a great future. The exciting, smart and outgoing part of you is going to bring you great success in the future.

Love always,
Bruce O'Young

To my dear cousin Diana.

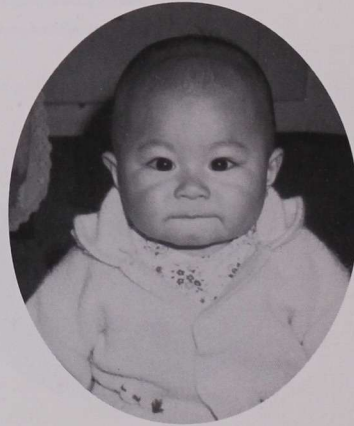

Like many things in life, our relationship sure had its ups and downs. But I can't be happier that we are good friends once again... Because I doubt I will ever come across someone who has as much qualities to admire as you. You work so hard. School, sports, family — doesn't matter what it is, you always try your best and give everything you've got. All of your hard work had earned you the glorious achievements that you have today.

You are one of the nicest people I have ever known. People can always feel a special warmth and gentleness when they are around you. The smile you give so freely, the kindness that you share, your willingness to lend a hand, the way you're always there. — These are but few things makes you a very special person...

Even though we are usually miles apart, chasing our own dreams and there are a lot of little daily things we have to miss sharing. From deep in my heart, I have considered you one of my dearest friends, ever. I just want to tell you that I am so proud and grateful for having a great cousin and special friends like you, who shares, who listens, who cares... Thank you for everything... and know that if you ever feel down, I will always be there... to guide you and support you...

Congratulations and I wish you the best in the road of life.

Love,
Your Cousin Anna,
Wing Ka Wong

From my kiddie years, you were there, Di. As I look back to the long road we've shared, a tingling feeling appears. And I think, without you, these years would never be as great and worthwhile. You were the shoulder that was always there to hold me up. And the memories we've shared wouldn't be as great if it was with someone else (despite the fights we've had). Remember the after-school phone calls about guys, family, clothes, all the gossips. The cool Tennis practices, but especially our after activities. Eating Vietnamese or just chill'n at your place. Or our shopping trips with the RTD or that awful mall experience. I know there's a million memories I could just pull out. They made life turn out to be the greatest experience so far. And through the time at Skyview, our friendship grew tighter and more relying on each other. And as the heartbreaking move came about, it was scary without you. Nor did I realize the move would distant our understanding of one another's present life. But you and I still managed to be there for each other with the busy lives we lead. Though we've grown in different ways, that link between us had never changed. Sure the phone talks aren't the same, nor are the times we spend together. But no matter what, you're my bestest friend. No one could ever take your place. And now as you are about to take your next step, I wish you the best in whatever road you fall upon. And no matter what road in life we take, no matter our distance, our friendship will never change in my heart. Good luck, girl—I'll miss you!

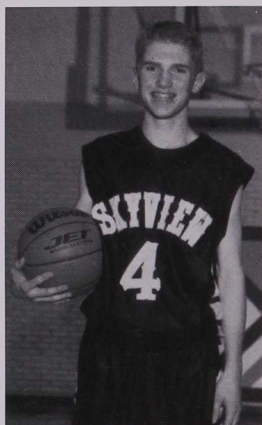

love,

As graduation time arrives we lovingly recall how proud we've been of things you've done since you were very small and we hope the coming years will be the best you've ever had- so you'll always be as happy as you've made your Mom and Dad.

Congratulations!

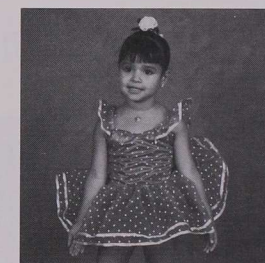

It seems like yesterday that we were all excited because you were graduating from kindergarten. As the years went by you did a lot of things to make us all proud of you. Well, here we are twelve years later graduation time again and the pride we felt has grown right along with you.

Katy Jennings

Darling Katy Jean,

The joys, frustrations, and surprises you have brought us have greatly enriched our lives. You mean the world to us! We will always be there for you!

What is a daughter?

*A daughter is love in a bright pink bow
A bundle of happiness all aglow
A tomboy in jeans with a tear-streaked face
Crying because she has just lost a race
Then all of a sudden, no longer small,
She's a vision of loveliness dressed for a ball
A dreamer, a schemer, no two days the same
What is a daughter... it's more than a name
She's a pleasure, a treasure, a comfort each day
Loving and sweet in her own special way
She's a sense of contentment felt deep inside bringing a lifetime of pleasure and pride!*

Jenica Tyese,

I remember the day you were born, such a little doll and such a joy. As you grew, you were so much fun. Your laughter as you would rock your crib from one wall to the other. The little teeth marks in the bars of soap. The beautiful drawings on my bedroom wall, done in orange lipstick, and the cute little expression on your face when I caught you (like I drew it for you grandma!). I remember how you used to love to pose for pictures and then if you were upset about something you would put your hands on your hips and say,
"Like you!" Oh those cherished memories!

17 years later "baby Jeka" is still a joy in my heart.
Pretty, intelligent, respectful, and still a character, now graduating from High School. Stay sweet Jen, you're a winner, a leader, and an achiever. As you go out into the world now learn, explore, and most of all have fun! The sky is the limit. You will succeed in anything that you do. I am blessed to be your grandma. I love you dearly, and I am so proud of you!

But always Jenica Tyese, my niece (Hey, that rhymes). What can I say, I can't believe the time has come! It seems like just yesterday that you were taking three hours to build a city in Nintendo's Sim City or spending another three hours feeding Yashi berries. It just shows what a caring heart you have, making sure Yashi was getting enough to eat. I know this space is limited, although I could go on forever talking about the great memories I have of you growing into the beautiful young lady you have become! All I can say is I love you very much! If you need anything, you let Uncle Doug know. Don't ever settle for second best. Always remember the best deserves the best.

Jecka,

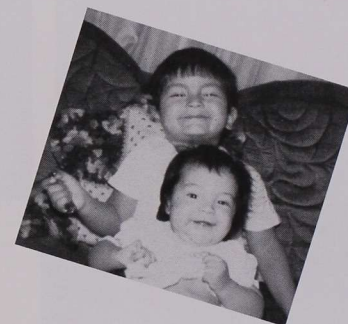

Hi sister!

I have watched you grow up right before my eyes. It seems like yesterday that we were with the bug, or you were teaching me how to whistle.

You have been a vital part of my life, if not arguing with you then making sure that your boyfriends didn't treat you wrong:) I would not trade it in for the world though. I have loved watching you develop into one of the greatest

For Jenica Tyese Gurule

When you were born the trees murmured their approval
The winds moved over your tiny body.
From the North the eagles called your name
From the East I could feel your health and vitality
From the South eternal winds were breathing
continued life
From the west the mountains sang for joy.
You are a child of the world
We can't own or possess you.
The winds of the four directions have sustained you.
All we can ask is for the Spirit of the Eagle
To help you soar to the greatest heights in wisdom and courage
And to know the serenity and tranquility of unencumbered flight.

Shelly,
Well it was over 17 years ago that the best thing in my life happened to me, it was you. We have learned a lot together. We have cried together, we have supported each other through good times and bad times. Shelly you have been my world, now it's time for you to go out and live your own life. Always do what your heart tells you. Live life to the fullest, try to have fun and learn new every day. The day we stop learning is the day we become a fool. Don't worry about what you want to be when you grow up, it will all come together in time. Always take time to have fun and watch rugrats. You will always be my best friend. You have made my life wonderful. I always got a natural high watching you compete. There is no better feeling when you get to my age than that. I know what a good job I did in raising you. I didn't do it alone though, thus I had some of your other parents add some thoughts to this. No matter what we all love you and we will always be here for you no matter what. I will always love you, Bingo.
S.A.M.

Shell Bell... CONGRATULATIONS!!! I'm so proud of you! You have come so far and I only wish the best for you in the future. Thanx for being my best friend and a mentor. Never forget the cooler incident at Lake Powell because it will keep you modest!
Your #1 Fan, Sarah Bear

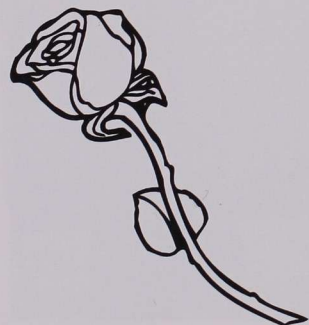

Shelly,

You were the first of a group of youngsters that spawned from us. That was your burden, so far you have made us all very proud. We all take joy in your fathers pride, because we were there. Just remember, only one man brought you up, and only one man gave his life to you so you could be you. Shelly! Now that you've become that person please remember where it came from. Always respect your parents, elders, and most importantly always remember to respect yourself. This is done by a series of life long decisions. Whatever you do, be good at, be good at who you are, and just be good! These are the things that your father has given to you. His, and our lessons might seem insignificant now, but believe me they will guide you in the near future. Be true to yourself, that is the most important thing I can tell you now. You are entering the first phase of adulthood, take this time to think what you really want to be thirty years from now. The immediate future is short sighted. Please learn from us. Bottom line hon, we love you and we will always be here for you. You have held a special place in our hearts and you always will! Now that you have made it through high school it's time to make it through life! Don't forget that there is always someone here to help!
I love you always, Tuncle Scott

Dear Shelly,

What do I say! I'm so proud of you, more than you can ever know. I've been there since the beginning. I still cherish "Craft time with Aunt Julie." All the times you and your cousins got tooth paste and lotion all over. I remember you as a baby! You were always so happy, and cheering up your cousins. I remember when you and your dad taught Sarah how to ride a bike, you were so thoughtful, even when she hit that parked truck. I remember watching you water ski. How I wanted to do that with you! But most of all, I want you to be happy and always original. Treat people as you want to be treated. I know that you will go far in whatever you do. Always remember that I love you with all my heart and soul.

Aunt Julie

Shelly:
We watched you go from an adorable child into a beautiful woman. We feel so very lucky to have always been part of your life. Good things happen to good people so we know that you will always exceed in whatever you choose to do. Best wishes from another part of your family.

Love,
Your parents at the lake

To our #1 Granchild, Shelly:

On that August Day, 1982, when we saw you for the very first time our hearts reeled with love for our precious little bundle of joy. A blessing of love from heaven to our family named Shelly!

We had so much fun spoiling you, like jumping on Grandma Nancy's bed at the cabin. And other great times we've had together when you were growing up. Like going fishing on Granpa's pontoon boat: playing at the park behind our house: coloring and hiding your Easter Eggs: making "mud" pies in the back yard: and then hot air ballooning on your sweet sixteenth!

Your strong commitment, determination, happy nature, quick smile and love for sports are just some of your wonderful traits. We are very proud of you and your many accomplishments.

We look forward, with high expectations, to your future. You have great potential. Always do your best.

You have left loving footprints in our hearts. God's richest blessings on you.

Lovingly, Grandma Nancy and Granpa Arlen.

Shelly,

From the first time we saw you we knew that we had a very special Grandaughter. We made it through the grape juice stage and the Gong Show. We have had a lot of great years together. We are so proud of all your wonderful accomplishments. We know that you will succeed in whatever you decide to do. You are truly a very special child. Remember we will always be there for you.

Love you lots, Grandpa Gordon and Grandma Beans.

Dear Shelly,

It's been almost 18 years since I received that phone call from Texas. "Gram you have a grandchild!" It said. I spent the first two weeks of your life helping to take care of you. It has been a great honor watching you excel in sports, band, and becoming an honor student.

You are a lovely Grandaughter. Love,
Great Grandma Opal.

Dear Shelly,

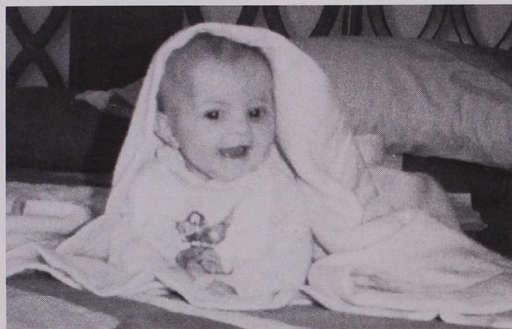

You have always been one of my favorites. When I've been alone it meant a great lot to me receive your letters and calls. You are a lovely girl and I wish you every success in your future endeavors.

To all my friends,

You have never judged me, you were proud when I succeeded and supportive when I didn't. You always listened. You always knew when I was asking for advice and when I needed a good cry. You multiplied my excitement with your own and divided my frustrations with your empathy and understanding. Although we each have busy lives, we always found time to fill each other's ears with stories and our hearts with love. We've shared experiences and hopes, frustrations and fears. You made me feel that my opinions were never immature and my thoughts never silly. Our relationship is like the tea we have sipped many a night not so long ago: The longer it steeped the better it tasted.

For now until then...

...until we meet again.

The school year has come and gone. We will remember both the good and bad. We will remember each other, some more than others. For those who made it a wonderful experience, we will never forget; for the mistakes that we made, we'll only wish we could forget. High school is the best time of our lives and without the experience, we would never be who we are today. To think the only thing we used to wait for was the day our high school lives would start, and now, the only thing we avoid thinking of is the day that we will depart.

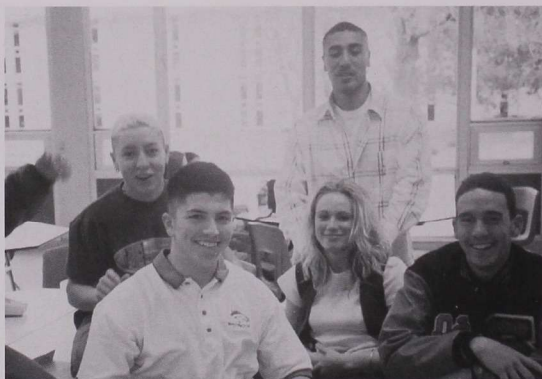

“Right now, I feel like never leaving Skyview, but eventually we all must move on to bigger and better things. Oh yeah, 2001 Rocks!”

-Luis Orozco, 11

WE'RE TOO SEXY!

Juniors Louie Lorenzo and Gabe Hatcher do their little turns on the catwalk at the Powder Puff game last fall. It looks like they are enjoying themselves a little too much. Well if they aren't, at least we are!!!

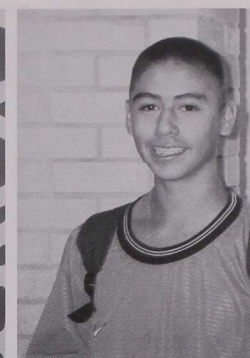

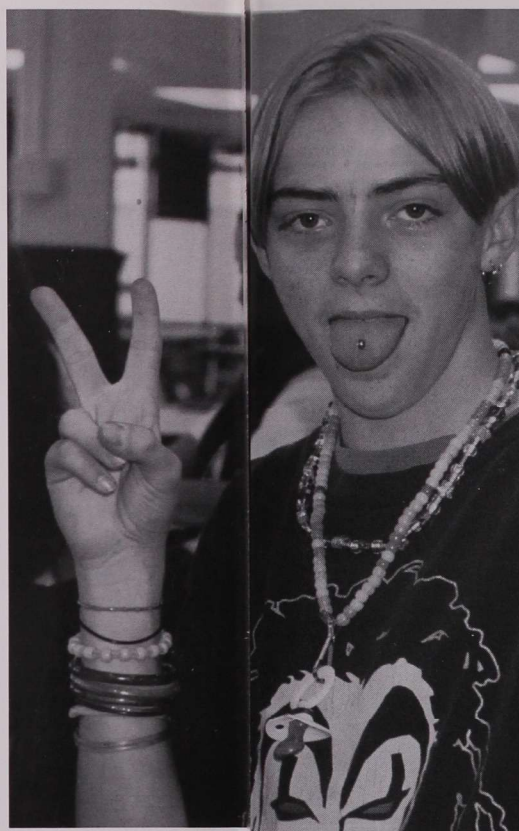

ALAS, THE END IS NEAR.

Gary Almeida, Jon Chavez, Michelle Domenico, Jason Delgado, and Nathaniel Markley gather around for a final picture with a few of their friends.

LAID BACK

Sophomore Chris Deder relaxes in the cafeteria with the contentment of summer's approach. Don't get too comfortable, you still have two more years.

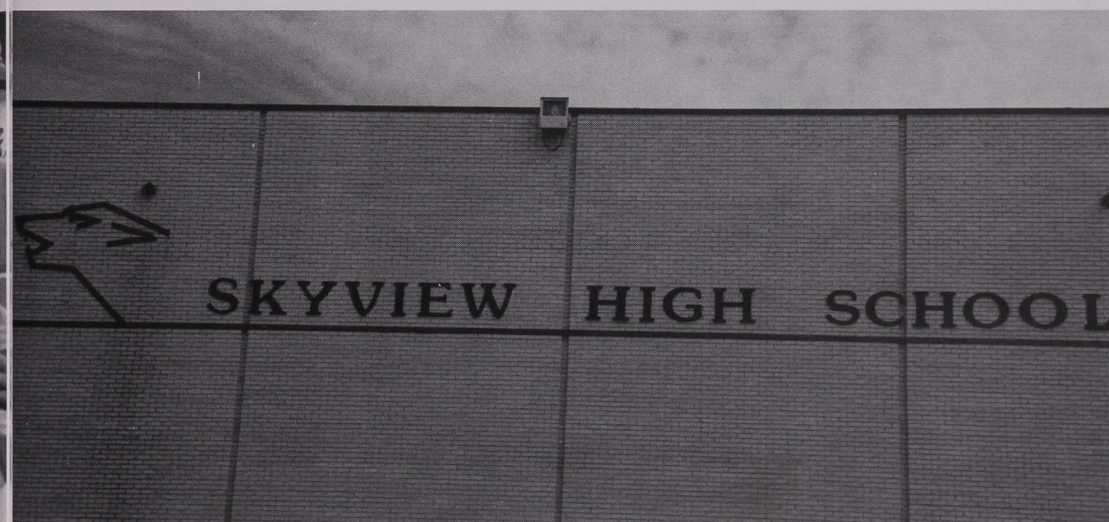

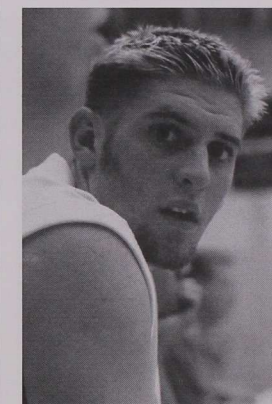

GOOD RIDDANCE

Peace on Earth and Goodbye to Skyview. Sophomore Justin Huff bids farewell to Skyview for the summer. A Carefree Ending. Freshman Bryanna Carlstrom remembers the school year with a carefree laugh. A Freshman First. Lawrence Perez sighs with relief as the school year drawsto a close. Group Hug! Sophomores Monica Troutman, Mike Gallegos, and Sabrina Espinoza appreciate the comforts of true friends. Goodbye 1999-2000, hello summertime!

SO NOT IN THE MOOD

Junior Robby Ing scowls at the camera during a basketball game. Sorry Rob, we didn't put you on the bench. Oh well, there's always next year.

007. Junior Monica Ayala shows her secret agent side. GRRR. Sophomore Melissa Alsip glares deviously as we sneak a quick pic. Sorry about their bad mood. Cloud Nine. Junior Derek Urban stares blankly as we snap his picture. The Strongest Crutch. Sophomore Michelle Gallegos, and Junior Connie Gaitan boost up Sophomore Gina Gaitan with all of their might.

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER

Senior Sam Humphries goes all out at Homecoming '99. Sam's always been known for his risky antics. He is definitely stayin' alive!

It's all over now

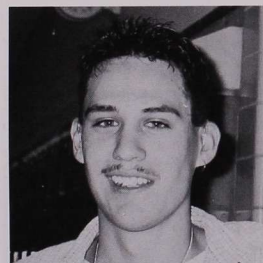

Goodbye Class of 2000!

At the speed that our high school years go by and come to an end, we forget to remember the most important things and to appreciate the most important people. We love our lives, our freedoms, and our school. We are the ones who will always rule!!!!

“ Thank God. ”

-Jenica Gurule, 12

A SMILE TO LAST A LIFETIME

Senior Chris Rubio ponders the plusses and minuses of his senior year. Looks like when he added it all up it came out pretty positive.

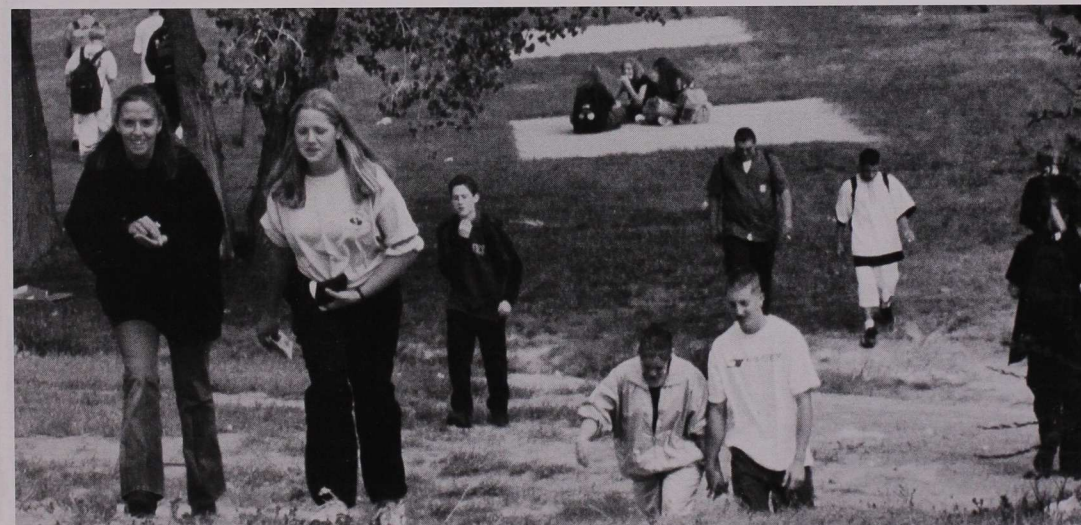

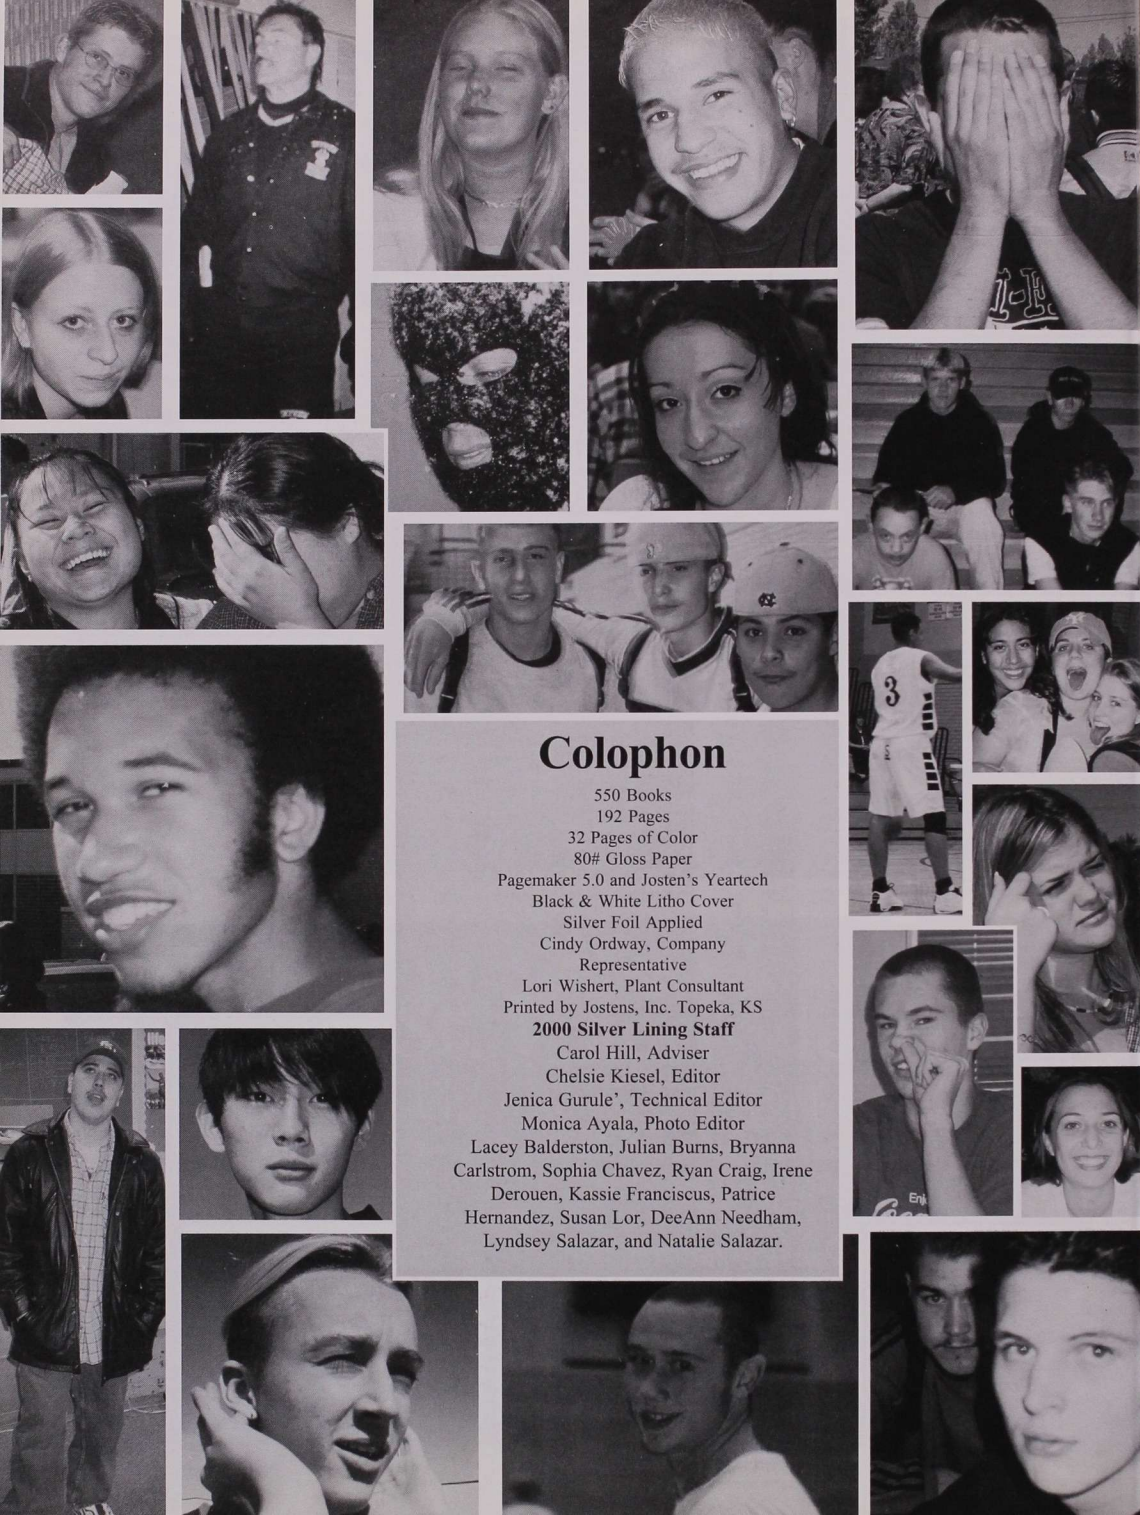

CAN WE HELP YOU?

Skyview's Wolverine Cafe staff poses for a final photograph as the team that serves us in the mornings and afternoons.

HERE I AM

Senior Andrea Menchaca prances about the gym at a fall pep assembly. She sure has a reason to prance, Andrea was just honored with a very prestigious award from Principal Lewis.
