Mayor Garrett Proclaims Parking Ban For 2023 Milling and Paving

Hamden – Effective starting Monday, August 28, 2023, Mayor Garrett has proclaimed a parking ban for only those streets on the fall paving list (see below).

This ban is being proclaimed pursuant to Section 70.34 (13) of the Code of the Town of Hamden. As per this section, no person shall park or allow to remain parked, any motor vehicle on any portion of any highway to which it applies. The parking ban shall expire at the conclusion of the work on the streets listed below, and a separate announcement will be issued.

Signs shall be posted on each scheduled street not less than 24 hours in advance of any paving activity and shall remain in effect until paving has been completed. Residents are permitted to park on their street until such time that signs have been posted. Please remain attentive and watchful for signage regarding your street’s scheduled paving activities. Vehicles not removed prior to paving activity will be subject to towing at the owner’s expense.

On Monday, August 28, 2023, milling and paving work will begin, and the following streets will have no parking on the street until work is completed:
