

3. What value does K-12 public education bring to the Renton community?

4. The Renton School District serves over 15,000 students who are richly diverse ethnically, socioeconomically, linguistically, and in terms of academic needs. How would you describe the opportunities this presents?

5. The operation of the school district is controlled by elected school board members who operate under federal and state laws and district policies. How would you become familiar with these various statutes?

6. What five words would a work colleague or neighbor use to describe you?

7. What are some of the local, state or national public educational issues which you are familiar?

8. Please tell us about a situation where you were part of a team that had to make a difficult decision and you held a divergent view from the majority.

9. Describe your vision of the role a parent or guardian should play in the educational process.

10. The operating budget for the Renton School district is over $280 million. Describe any budget experience you have that would assist your oversight of this budget.

11. This Board position will be an appointed position that will run up to the November 2025 election. If you are appointed, are you interested in running and election for the seat at the time for a full four-year term?