Student Fund Raising Activities

Solicitation and collection of money by students for any purpose, including the collection of money in exchange for tickets, papers, magazine subscriptions, or for any other goods or services may be permitted subject to the following restrictions:

1. Activities must be conducted by a recognized student group for the purpose of contributing to educational objectives, with the activity appropriate to the students' age or grade levels.
2. Activities shall be appropriate for schools and shall be conducted under the supervision of teachers and/or administrators.
3. Activities shall be conducted in such a way and at such times as not to encroach upon instructional time or interfere with regularly scheduled school classes and activities, and shall not be unduly demanding on teacher time and work.
4. Fund raising activities shall be evaluated annually by administrators, advisors, and students of affected organizations.

The superintendent or his/her designee shall establish rules and regulations for the solicitation of funds by approved school organizations. The principal shall distribute these rules and regulations to each student organization granted permission to conduct fund raising activities.
