

What is Title I?

It is the largest federally funded education program that provides supplemental funds to assist in meeting student's education goals.

How Title I Works

Federal Title I funds are allocated to states and then to school districts. School district identify schools that are eligible to receive funds.

Types of Title I Programs

Schoolwide Program:

Schools with 40% or more of its students from low-income families can develop schoolwide Title I programs to serve all students. School wide programs can combine Title I funds with federal, state and local funds to improve school programs.

Targeted Assistance Programs:

Schools with 35-39% of its students from low-income families can have a Targeted Assistance Program. These schools will work out a plan to make sure that children served by Title I meet Kentucky's achievement standard's. Targeted Assistance Programs cannot combine federal, state, and local funds.
