IV. Superintendent Report

Dr. Maria Rianna is looking forward to the official new school year. Curriculum writing has already begun along with discussions on topics for the 2022 - 2023 professional development and the hiring process for the school regarding all staff as needed. July 1st is when we officially prepare for the next school year.

Dr. Rianna also mentioned that she was to a conference in Cooperstown where she met with State Education officials and talked about accountability and what is recommended. Thanked Jason Farnan, the Assistant Commissioner, who worked with a group of them on how data is collected as well as other topics. One topic that the state aid officials are supporting us with is the foundation aide formula. We're looking at having something in place by 2023-2024 indicative of each of the district's needs. Our agenda has been worked out for advocating for the work that we will be doing over the next twelve months. Dr. Rianna thanked the legislators for working with them.
