

~Source Sheet: Web Site

Name of Website: _____

URL Address: _____

Title of Information: _____

Author(s) if given: _____

Date You Accessed the Site: _____

How did you find this site? _____

Source Evaluation

1. Select a paragraph of text.
2. Are there more than three words/ideas/sentences that you do not understand?
_____ If yes, then discard this source and source sheet and find a new one.
3. Is the text printed completely (or is part of it cut off?) _____ If no, then reprint the text by either copying or pasting it into a Word document or by selecting a "printer friendly" version.
4. Read through source, underline in pencil important/interesting segments.
5. Record 2 or more of the most useful facts about your topic given in this source.

FACTS:

~Source Sheet: Newspaper or Magazine

Name of Newspaper or Magazine: _____

Date Published: _____ Volume: Issue (if given) _____

Title of Article: _____ page _____

Author(s) if given: _____

Where did you find this? _____

Source Evaluation

1. Select a paragraph of text.
2. Are there more than three words/ideas/sentences that you do not understand?
_____ If yes, then discard this source and source sheet and find a new one.
3. Is the text printed completely (or is part of it cut off?) _____ If no, then reprint the text by either copying or pasting it into a Word document or by selecting a "printer friendly" version.
4. Read through source, underline in pencil important/interesting segments.
5. Record 2 or more of the most useful facts about your topic given in this source.

FACTS:

~Source Sheet: Encyclopedia

Name of Encyclopedia: _____

Title of Article: _____

Author(s) if given at end of article: _____

Year of Publication: _____

For print version only: Volume _____ Page number(s) _____

Where did you find this? _____

Source Evaluation

1. Select a paragraph of text.
2. Are there more than three words/ideas/sentences that you do not understand?
_____ If yes, then discard this source and source sheet and find a new one.
3. Is the text printed completely (or is part of it cut off?) _____ If no, then reprint the text by either copying or pasting it into a Word document or by selecting a “printer friendly” version.
4. Read through source, underline in pencil important/interesting segments.
5. Record 2 or more of the most useful facts about your topic given in this source.

FACTS:

~Source Sheet: Book # _____

Title of Book: _____

Author(s) or Editor(s): _____

Publishing Company: _____

City of Publication: _____

Copyright Date: _____ Call Number _____ Page numbers _____

Where did you find this book? _____

Source Evaluation

1. Select a paragraph of text.
2. Are there more than three words/ideas/sentences that you do not understand?
_____ If yes, then discard this source and source sheet and find a new one.
3. Is the text printed completely (or is part of it cut off?) _____ If no, then reprint the text by either copying or pasting it into a Word document or by selecting a "printer friendly" version.
4. Read through source, underline in pencil important/interesting segments.
5. Record 2 or more of the most useful facts about your topic given in this source.

FACTS:

~Source Sheet: Book # _____

Title of Book: _____

Author(s) or Editor(s): _____

Publishing Company: _____

City of Publication: _____

Copyright Date: _____ Call Number _____ Page numbers _____

Where did you find this book? _____

Source Evaluation

1. Select a paragraph of text.
2. Are there more than three words/ideas/sentences that you do not understand?
_____ If yes, then discard this source and source sheet and find a new one.
3. Is the text printed completely (or is part of it cut off?) _____ If no, then reprint the text by either copying or pasting it into a Word document or by selecting a "printer friendly" version.
4. Read through source, underline in pencil important/interesting segments.
5. Record 2 or more of the most useful facts about your topic given in this source.

FACTS:
