We are excited to welcome students back to school, and the 2023-24 school year is going to be our best yet! We are proud to partner with parents, families, and our community to ensure each of our students feel welcome, safe, and excited to learn--ensuring each and every student has the opportunity to be successful.

We continue to make intentional investments in our academic, vocational, and extracurricular programs, and we strive to provide the very best staff---all of which helps South Bend meet the needs of our students. Our team eagerly awaits the new school year and we look forward to seeing students on August 31.

I look forward to the continued privilege of serving as your school superintendent, as 23-24 marks my 10th year of service to the South Bend community. As always, please feel welcome to drop by for a visit, call, or email. I am always happy to hear from our students, parents, and community members!

Asbestos Update

Each year the district must notify parents of any asbestos containing materials in our schools. With the remodel of the junior senior high we no longer have asbestos other than in the glue of some floor tiles and marble creet in some of the walls. If you have any questions regarding these materials, please contact Wyatt Kuiken, maintenance supervisor at 875-6041.

Homeless Education Act

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Act requires school districts to ensure that children and youth experiencing homelessness have full and equal access to an appropriate public education and that they experience success in school. Homelessness is defined as lacking a fixed, regular and adequate nighttime residence including: 1) sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, 2) living in motels, hotels, trailer parks or campgrounds due to alternative adequate accommodations, 3) living in emergency shelters or hospitals, 4) living in public or private places not normally designed or designated as regular sleeping accommodations for human beings, 5) living in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, travel trailers, substandard housing, or similar, 6) migratory children living in any of the circumstances described above.

To the extent practical and is required by law, the district will work with homeless students and their families to provide stability and school attendance and other services. More information is available by contacting Jon Schray at 875-6041.

Indian Education Program

The Indian Education Program is federally funded by the US Department of Education in Washington DC. Funds to operate the program are based upon the total number of eligible students in our school district who have a Title VII Student Eligibility Certificate (506 form) on file with the district. Students in preschool through 12th grade with parents, grandparents or themselves registered with a federally recognized tribe are eligible to enroll and participate in the program. The focus for the 2016-17 school year will be on cultural education and academic support. Eligible students needing academic support will be provided with extra help. Classrooms with students enrolled in the program will have materials provided to support native education in the curriculum. Parent information and meeting notices will be sent in the mail. Contact Jon Schray at 875-5327 for more information.

Weather Closures and Delays

In the event that we have severe weather this year, please tune to our local television or radio stations for the most updated information. You will also receive an automated call from her school's telephone alert system if we have your most up-to-date telephone number. Please use these methods to know if we have delays or closures. Staff are not always available to answer the phone on these days, and the Transportation Department is extremely busy during this decision-making time.

Birth to Three Program

BECCA Bill & School Attendance

The BECCA bill requires that the district and parents enter into an agreement on school attendance no later than the fifth absence, or the district will file a report with the courts. The school must notify parents of the consequences of continued unexcused absences.

The law allows the court to order a child to attend the current school, another public school, seek alternative placement, be punished by the court, or provide community service. Parents may also be fined $25 per day for violating the law. To learn, students need to be in school.

The compulsory attendance age for attending school is 16 years of age. Parent permission is required for a child to leave school to go to work unless they are emancipated from their parents. The law defines an unexcused absence as: not attending the majority of hours or periods in an average school day, or failing to comply with the attendance policy.

The district reports to the courts any student with seven or more excused absences in a month or 10 within a school year and may file a report for fewer absences if deemed necessary.

See <http://www.k12.wa.us/attendance/default.aspx> for more information.

This allows the district to respond quickly in the case of an accident. All information of this nature is confidential and not shared with others.
