

High School Syllabus

Department: English

Course #: 10116W

Course Title: Studio Communications 2

DESCRIPTION OF COURSE: Students will be responsible for producing daily news programs based on the morning announcements. In addition, students will produce stories and packages for broadcasts that apply the skills learned in Studio Communications 1. Since a great deal of time is necessary to produce a successful show, students will be required to spend significant time after school and after class taping events and working on projects. Students will create independent projects at teacher and administration request. Upon successful completion of Studio Communications 1, students may take this class.
