School nurses also screen for pediculosis, neuro-developmental deficits and other problems as indicated.

Screenings may be done by the student's family physician, dentist or healthcare provider.

Chronic illness, such as asthma and diabetes are monitored by the school nurse in cooperation with the student's parents/guardian and physician.

Sports physicals are scheduled for all students participating in the athletic program.

Health service personnel maintain health records by working cooperatively with parents, teachers, other school specialists and the students themselves. Parents are urged to keep immunizations up to date and to consult the school nurse if a problem arises relating to their child's health.
