TOPIC
Our project this term is:	Invasions
In the Invasion project, your child will explore the effects of the Roman withdrawal and the chronology and geography of subsequent invasions. They will study the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings in detail, examining their reasons for invading, their settlements and their everyday life. Your child will also look at monasteries and the Anglo-Saxon legacy. They will consider how we know about life in this period and investigate the Sutton Hoo ship burial. They will learn about Athelstan, an Anglo-Saxon king, and what happened after his death, before ending the project by learning about the Norman invasion of 1066.

How you can help at home for this project

Work with your child to choose which activities to try at home.

1. Write definitions for the topic-related words listed to create a glossary.

2. Use information books and online sources to help you answer the following enquiry questions.

- Who were the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings?
- Why did they come to Britain?
- What was the Anglo-Saxon period in Britain?
- What was the Viking Age in Britain?

3. Use information books and online sources to find out key events during the Anglo-Saxon period and the Viking Age in Britain. Record the key events in a table in chronological order. Two events are provided.

- AD 400 – The first Saxon, Jute and Angle invaders begin to arrive and settle in Britain.
- AD 410 – The Romans leave Britain.

4. Historians use a range of sources to learn about the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings. Find out about the sources listed below and record interesting information you discover.

- Bede and his writing
- Gildas and his writing
- Anglo-Saxon Chronicle
- Illuminated manuscripts
- Sutton Hoo burial site
- Excavations in Coppergate, York

Sent with this letter are some possible home learning activities for you to try. Choose 3-4 activities to try at home.

Finally, attached to this letter is our Knowledge Organiser which gives you more information about what we will be learning about.

Yours sincerely,

Miss T Digby
