Y10 – Y13 Unilever Live Online Career Challenge – 4 October at 5pm

Unilever are offering a great virtual work experience challenge which you can complete in your own time. The Challenge...

Magnum, one of the most internationally recognisable Unilever ice cream brands, have released two limited edition flavours this summer: Starchaser & Sunlover. Unilever are interested in understanding more about what people are saying about these flavours and how the ice cream lovers in the UK differ to their other global markets. This information will help their strategy team to deliver and launch new limited ice cream products.

Working with Unilever's Magnum Ice Cream data you will be tasked with deciding whether the public like the Starchaser and / or Sunlover flavours and how they compare to Magnum's all-time best sellers. This will involve exploring reviews, ratings, deal offers and the relationship between price, vegan offerings / conventional options. In summary, uncover the hidden insights within Magnum's world of frozen delights.
