BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT MONTH

WHEREAS: The State of Georgia is committed to excellence in education and recognizes the importance of family participation in the pursuit of such standards; and

WHEREAS: Education is the gateway to a brighter future. When our students succeed, our state succeeds. Family engagement in that education process may take place at school, at home, or in the community, and is essential to educational success; and

WHEREAS: Through active partnerships and by working directly with their children's schools and the community, parents can help to build a solid academic foundation upon which their children can thrive; and

WHEREAS: Partnerships are essential to the success of Georgia's children, and Family Engagement Month provides an important opportunity to promote awareness regarding the vital roles that parents and family members have as partners in the education of children of all ages; and

WHEREAS: During Family Engagement Month, the State of Georgia encourages families and caregivers to take an active role in promoting and supporting their children's education; now

THEREFORE: I, BRIAN P. KEMP, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim November 2021 as FAMILY ENGAGEMENT MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 7th day of October in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-One.
