Norwalk Public Schools Appoints Alison Breedy-Johnson as Executive Director of Leadership Development and Scott Santaniello as Assistant Principal of Wolfpit Integrated Arts School

Norwalk, Conn. (Sept. 5, 2023) -- The Norwalk Board of Education approved the appointments for a new executive director of leadership development and a new assistant principal of Wolfpit Integrated Arts School during a special board meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 5.

Alison Breedy-Johnson joins the leadership development team alongside Executive Director of Leadership Development Mary-Anne Sheppard. Breedy-Johnson most recently served as the Deputy Superintendent for the New York City Department of Education's CUNY/Urban Assembly High Schools, and brings to Norwalk Public Schools nearly 25 years of experience in education.

Scott Santaniello will be the new assistant principal of Wolfpit Integrated Arts School. He most recently served as a math instructional coach at Naramake Elementary School.

For more information about each new appointment, please see below.

Alison Breedy-Johnson Executive Director of Leadership Development at Central Office

Breedy-Johnson began her career in education in 1999, teaching fifth and sixth grade students at Castle Hill Middle School in the Bronx for 10 years. During that time, she also had her own law practice in White Plains for seven years. Prior to her current role as the deputy superintendent, Breedy-Johnson served as the tenured principal at the Urban Assembly Academy of Government and Law for eight years.
