From Dr. Chad Konkle, RLSD Superintendent: “In the Ross Local School District, we’ve historically performed very well on the State Report Card, but financial difficulties over the last two years have threatened that tradition. The report card ratings released today confirm that our standard of excellence remains unchanged, which is a testament to the tremendous students, staff, and families of the Ross Local School District.”

From RLSD Board of Education President, Sean Van Winkle: “With the recent State Report Card the Ross Community should be extremely proud. We have excellent families, students, staff and leadership. Dr. Konkle has remarkable vision and leadership for our district. The recent results on the state report card are one of many indicators that he has our district in a position of strength and is continuing to nurture successful students and making the Ross community a great place to live.”
