ISAAC WELCOMES FAMILIES BACK TO SCHOOL FOR LONG-AWAITED OPEN HOUSE

New London, CT- The Interdistrict School for Arts and Communication (ISAAC) is thrilled to announce the return of its much-anticipated Back-to-School Night, marking the first in-person open house event since 2019. This exciting event will take place on Thursday, September 21, 2023, starting at 5:30 pm, and promises an engaging evening for students and their families.

After two years of virtual interactions and remote learning, ISAAC is eager to open its doors once more to students and their loved ones. Back-to-School Night provides an excellent opportunity for parents and guardians to become acquainted with the school, its teachers and the educational environment that awaits their children.

Families are encouraged to take this opportunity to explore the school premises, meet the dedicated teaching staff, and gain a deeper understanding of the educational programs and extracurricular activities ISAAC has to offer. It's a chance to celebrate the return to in-person learning and foster a sense of community among students, parents and educators.

As a friendly reminder, Back-to-School Night is not the appropriate forum for individual discussions about students' progress or specific concerns. To address personal matters or inquiries regarding your child's education, ISAAC encourages parents to reach out to teachers via email or by calling the school directly. This approach respects both the privacy of students and the event's intended purpose.

ISAAC is dedicated to maintaining a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere during Back-to-School Night, allowing families to fully enjoy the experience and interact with faculty and staff. By facilitating individual discussions outside the event, the school ensures that all attendees can focus on getting to know the school community as a whole.

"We are absolutely delighted to welcome our students and their families back to ISAAC for this special occasion," said Dr. Spera, Executive Director of ISAAC. "Our staff is eager to reconnect with students' families in person and showcase the fantastic educational opportunities we have prepared for the new school year."

The ISAAC community looks forward to rekindling the sense of togetherness that makes the school special and to building strong partnerships between parents, students and educators. The return of in-person events like Back-to-School Night is a significant step toward normalcy and promises to be an unforgettable evening of connection and celebration.

Save the date and join ISAAC on Thursday, September 21, 2023, at 5:30 pm, for a memorable Back-to-School Night. Together, let's celebrate the exciting journey that lies ahead for our students at ISAAC.

STAFF SPOTLIGHT, MRS. LITTERIO

What do you enjoy most about ISAAC?

What I love about ISAAC is the energy on the building! Everyone is excited and wants students to succeed in every way possible.

What made you become a teacher?

I became a teacher because I love working with students. I love seeing their confidence soar while learning new material. And of course get students interested in reading books!

What are some of the things you enjoy doing outside of school?

In my free time I love to ski, read, and play board games with my family.

Principal's Notes:

Hello ISAAC Families,

We're off to a great start this school year! We're excited to have our students back and engaged in learning. As we embark on this journey together, we encourage you to get involved and stay connected.

Please consider joining our PTO meetings. Your participation and input are invaluable in supporting our school community.

Additionally, keep an eye out for announcements about our after-school clubs. These clubs offer students fantastic opportunities to explore their interests and passions beyond the classroom.

Thank you for being part of the ISAAC family. Let's make this school year memorable and filled with growth and success for our students.
