

To celebrate "Score Big With School Breakfast!" can you unscramble these foods you may find at breakfast? We've given you a few hints.

1. N S K A P A C E

Hint: Some people call these flapjacks.

2. P F T A A R I

Hint: It's usually layered with yogurt and berries.

3. L O N G A R A

Hint: Sometimes it's a nut-and-oats-based layer in the answer to #2.

4. U T P G A R I R E F

Hint: The name of this citrus favorite is really the only thing it has in common with the small fruit that grows in bunches.

5. C B T I S I U

Hint: A common carrier for holding eggs, sausage and cheese in a breakfast sandwich.

6. K N E C C H I

Hint: This popular protein is paired with waffles for a soul food classic.

7. N G E R E G E S G

Hint: Did you eat these with ham on Dr. Seuss' Birthday?
