

Key stage 4 Geography Curriculum Map

Assessment

You will be assessed throughout each topic in geography.

You will have weekly homework and regular past paper question practice.

There will be assessments for each topic using past papers plus end of unit knowledge tests

How can tectonic hazards be managed?
How does the management of hazards link to level of development?

What processes and features are associated with constructive and destructive plate boundaries?

- ### Skills you develop
- Extended writing – Justification, Evaluation, chains of reasoning
 - Numeracy & mapping skills – Strengths and limitations of these
 - Geographical and exam terminology
 - Application of skills – Fieldwork,

GCSE Exams

I must do my revision
I must do my revision
I must do my revision
I must do my revision
I must do my revision

Revision

What challenges do humans place on different environments and how can this be managed?

Environmental challenges

Mock Exam

Bishop's Wood Human Geography fieldtrip

How and why do ecosystems vary around the world?

What extreme weather is linked with high and low pressure?

Weather, climate and ecosystems

What influences the UK climate?

Mock Exam

How has globalisation enabled countries to develop?
What are the advantages and disadvantages of MNCs?
How does development create inequalities?

Development and resource issues

How does development create regional inequality?

Year 11

How does development create water insecurity?

What is climate change?
What evidence is there for climate change?

Mock Exam

Bishop's Wood Physical Geography fieldtrip

Tectonics

What are the processes and features associated with coasts?
What are the causes of coastal change?

Landscapes and physical processes

Year 10

Recap: What are the processes and features associated with rivers?
Why do areas flood and how can this be managed?

