DRESS STANDARDS

Rowland Hall acknowledges that the choice of clothing is deeply personal and a means of self-expression. Students are encouraged to make mature choices consistent with the school's mission and the environment the school provides for all students. Below are the abbreviated dress standards. Please see the online handbook for additional details.

- Unaltered Rowland Hall logo shirts and sweatshirts
- All material must be completely opaque
- No visible undergarments
- No offensive logos
- No bedroom slippers or pajamas
- Costumes are not to be worn
- Shoes are required and should be flat; no heels and platform shoes/boots above a 1-inch.
- Clothing must be free from rips, tears and holes.
- Jewelry/accessories are allowed as long as it is safe and can't be construed as a weapon (for example, chains and/or chokers with spikes).
- Hats may not be worn indoors unless for religious purposes. This includes hoods on sweatshirts.
- Outdoor jackets may be worn outdoors only.
- Only Rowland Hall sweatshirts may be worn in the building.

ORDERING UNIFORM SHIRTS

ROWLAND HALL SCHOOL STORE
rowlandhall.org/store

LANDS END
landsend.com/school (Preferred School number: 9001-0823-4)

USED SHIRTS available in the MS office after Aug. 7

NOTE: Ordering from websites other than these is not permissible as they do not have the appropriate school logo.

NO IDLING POLICY

Keep in mind our No Idling Pledge, which states that if you are stopped for longer than 10 seconds at the school or bus stops, you will turn off your engine.

BEHAVIOR GOALS

- Respect yourself and others, treat everyone in our community with kindness.
- Respect the classrooms and common spaces; pick up after yourself.
- Be a responsible learner; give your personal best and encourage classmates.

RUNNING LATE?

- Parents/guardians, please email msattendance@rowlandhall.org or call the main office, 801-355-0272, by 9 am.
- Students must sign in at office when they arrive.
- Students are responsible for missed work and should check Canvas for posted assignments.

NOT FEELING WELL?

- Parents/guardians, please email msattendance@rowlandhall.org or call the main office, 801-355-0272, by 9 am.
- Students are responsible for missed work and should check Canvas for posted assignments.

LUNCH AND SNACKS

Food is available for purchase on a daily basis in the cafeteria during morning break, lunch, and after school. The cafeteria is a cashless system.

FOOD POLICIES

- No snacking in hallways and during classes.
- No gum chewing. Ever. Anywhere.
- Only plain water is allowed in the hallways, commons, and classrooms. Think green—bring your own water bottle.
- Make healthy choices.

MENU AND PRICING

A link to lunch menus, price lists, and lunch invoice details can be found in the Parent Portal.

CELL PHONES AND WATCHES

Cell phones must remain in backpacks or lockers and turned off during school hours. Smartwatches should be put in do not disturb mode during the school day.
