

The Charles County Special Education Citizens Advisory Committee (SECAC) is a group that enables the Director of Special Education to seek meaningful input from parents, community partners, service providers, and school administrators on local issues relative to the provision of a free and appropriate public education and the achievement of students with disabilities.

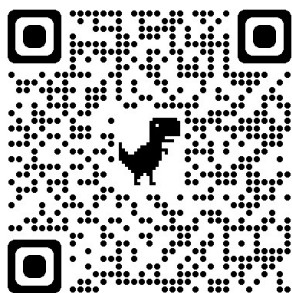

WE NEED YOUR INPUT

SECAC will be meeting beginning in September. The meeting will be in a hybrid platform. If you would like to participate, please come to the F.B. Gwynn Center at 6:30pm on the dates shown or register via zoom.

The Zoom link will be provided via email or our Facebook page.

Light refreshments will be available for in-person attendees.

We look forward to hearing from you!!!
