State law requires that all sex education materials need to be approved before being used in the class. These materials are first approved by the Sex Education curriculum committee and then by the School Board.

According to the administrative rule R277-474:

"Sex education instruction or instructional programs" means any course, unit, class, activity or presentation that provides instruction or information to students as outlined under Section 53G-10-403(1)(b) about sexual abstinence, human sexuality, human reproduction, reproductive anatomy, physiology, pregnancy, marriage, childbirth, parenthood, contraception, or HIV/AIDS, other sexually transmitted diseases, and refusal skills."

"While sex education instruction and related topics are most likely to take place in such courses as health education, health occupations, human biology, physiology, parenting, adult roles, psychology, sociology, child development, and biology, this (rule) applies to any course or class in which these topics are the focus of discussion."

Description: (Please write a short description of the material being requested.)
