

Flager Schools Under-aged GED Waiver Procedure

The Under-aged GED Waiver program is designed for an individual who has reached the compulsory school age (16 or 17 years of age) and has formally withdrawn from their last school of attendance. There are two options when seeking an Under-aged GED Waiver:

Option 1:

- Proof of withdrawal from last school of attendance, and
- Proof of an official GED Ready practice exam with a minimum score of 145 in each of the 4 subtests taken in a proctored environment within one year of the request, and
- Proof of completing an exit interview with school or district staff, and
- Submit Florida GED testing program underage waiver form to the department of teaching and learning.

OR

Option 2:

- Proof of withdrawal from last school of attendance and
 - Proof of enrollment in an Adult General Education Program and,
 - Proof of completing a minimum of 12 hours of instruction (in class, virtual class, or a combination of both) and,
 - Proof of an official GED Ready practice exam with a minimum score of 145 in each of the 4 subtests, and submit to the Adult Education department head, and
 - Proof of completing an exit interview with school or district staff.
- If a GED waiver is denied, an appeal request may be sent within 10 business days in writing to the department of teaching and learning via email at Teachingandlearning.
 - Please direct any questions regarding an underage waiver to Jeff Reaves, Director of Teaching and Learning at 386-437-7526 ext 1117 or via email to Jeff Reaves.
 - Any student enrolled in the area technical college may withdraw from courses to enter active military duty without penalty. Students may re-enroll in accordance with Florida Statutes.