

CODE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS

The elected and appointed officers and employees of the Lyon County School District recognize that holding public office and/or employment is a public trust. To preserve that trust, the District demands the highest code of conduct and ethical standards. The purpose of this policy is to define and establish the standards of ethical conduct that are required of public officials and employees so as to ensure their professional integrity in the performance of their duties.

The officers, employees, and volunteers of the District shall comply with the following provisions. This list is not all-inclusive, but simply provides the basic level of conduct expected.

- All elected and appointed officials and employees will conduct themselves with honesty and integrity in the course of performing their duties and responsibilities.
- They will act with care and diligence in the course of their employment.
- They will treat everyone, including coworkers, subordinates, supervisors, customers and the public, with the utmost respect and courtesy.
- They will comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws.
- They will comply with any lawful and reasonable direction given by someone in the employee's agency who has authority to give the direction.
- They will maintain appropriate confidentiality.
- They will disclose, and take reasonable steps to avoid, any conflict of interest (real or apparent) in connection with their employment.
- They will use employer resources in a proper manner.
- They will not provide false or misleading information in response to a request for information that is made for official purposes in connection with their employment.
- They will, at all times, act in a way that upholds the values and the integrity and good reputation of the Lyon County School District.
- They will comply with any other conduct requirement that is prescribed by the District.

Consistent with the provisions of NRS 281A.400 and NRS 281.230, a Code of Ethical Standards is hereby established to govern the conduct of the District's officials and employees.

1. No official or employee shall seek or accept any gift, service, favor, employment, engagement, perquisite, gratuity, or economic opportunity or advantage which would tend improperly to influence a reasonable person in his/her position to depart from the faithful and impartial discharge of his/her District duties.
2. No official or employee shall use his/her position with the District to secure or grant unwarranted privileges, preferences, exemptions, or advantages for him/herself, any member of his/her household, any business entity in which s/he has a significant pecuniary interest, or any other person.

3. No official or employee shall participate as an agent of the District in the negotiation or execution of a contract between the District and any private business in which s/he has a significant pecuniary interest.
4. No official or employee shall accept any salary, retainer, augmentation, expense allowance, or other compensation from any private source for the performance of his/her duties as an official or employee.
5. If an official or employee acquires, through his/her District duties or relationships, any information which by law or practice is not at the time available to the public generally, s/he shall not use such information to further his/her own current or future pecuniary interests or the current or future pecuniary interests of any other person or business entity.
6. No official or employee shall suppress any District report or other document or information because the release of such report or information has the potential to impact his/her own pecuniary interests or those with whom s/he has a business or personal relationship.
7. No official or employee shall use District time, property (including monies or funds), equipment, or other facility to benefit his/her personal or financial interests.
8. No official or employee shall attempt to benefit his/her personal or financial interest(s) by influencing or intimidating a subordinate.
9. No official or employee shall seek other employment or contracts through the use of his/her official position or the influence associated thereto.
10. An official or employee shall not, in any manner, directly or indirectly, receive any commission, personal profit, or compensation of any kind resulting from any contract or other transaction in which the District is in any way interested or affected except
 - a. A member of any board, commission, or similar body who is engaged in the profession, occupation, or business regulated by the board, commission, or body may, in the ordinary course of his/her business, bid on or enter into a contract with any governmental agency, except the board, commission or body of which s/he is a member, if s/he has not taken part in developing the contract plans or specifications and s/he will not be personally involved in opening, considering, or accepting offers.
 - b. A public officer or employee, other than an officer or employee described in Item a. above, may bid on or enter into a contract with a governmental agency if the contracting process is controlled by rules of open competitive bidding, the sources of supply are limited, s/he has not taken part in developing the contract plans or specifications, and s/he will not be personally involved in opening, considering, or accepting offers.

Violations of any of the above provisions may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
