- Posting of Hearing in Daily Southtown, Central Office and on Website

Dr. Shelly Davis-Jones started the meeting with the statement of compliance with the Remote/E-Learning Agreement that was attached and posted on the District's website. She stated the hearing and the notice of the hearing of the E-Learning Agreement was also posted in the newspaper for ten days. The Board at the last board meeting approved the E-Learning Policy 6:185. The posting of the hearing, the date and time which was this evening went into the newspaper on October 22, 2020 in the Daily Southtown for ten days and up on the District's website for the opportunity for the parents to be able to see and the teachers.

Dr. Shelly Davis-Jones stated the teachers will work with us in the transition program back to school. In the first pandemic last school year we started the work with this E-Learning Plan Agreement document and a lot of this was redundant and placed in there, but in what we had to do to be in compliance. We had to post in the newspaper and have a meeting this evening that's open to the public for any comments pertaining to the actual plan for any questions that anyone may have on the E-Learning Plan Agreement.
