Policy No. 702.4

Policy Title: Investments

It is the policy of the Board of Trustees that funds be deposited in interest bearing accounts or investments made whenever possible so as to maximize funds available with monies not needed for current payments or obligations or used for expenditures of the district. Investments may be made only in those instruments approved by, and in a method in conformity with State law including any instrument permitted by law for the investment of State monies.
