Oroville Union High School District
Course Description

Course Title:	Principles of Economics
Aeries Course #:	440A
CBEDS #:	9175
Course Length:	One Year
Type of Credit(s):	Social Science
A-G Approved:	Yes
Approval Date:	12/15/14
Integrated (Academic & CTE):	No
2+2 Credit:	No
Dual Enrollment:	No
District Certification:	No
Prerequisite:	None
Includes Hands-on Lab Activities:	No
Grade Level(s):	12
Primary Textbook(s):	Econ Alive: The Power to Choose, Teacher's Curriculum Institute, 2020 ISBN 978-1-934534-47-2
Supplemental Materials:	None
Reading Materials	Animal Farm, George Orwell
Reference Materials:	Merriam-Webster's High School Dictionary Appropriate software
Supplemental Films:	Tucker: The Man and his Dream Money Explained: Netflix Thinking Money: The Psychology Behind our Best and Worst Financial Decisions: PBS Broken: Netflix

Digital Resources:

ACDC Economics
Investopedia: Stock Market Simulation
Everfi: Financial Literacy
Next Generation Personal Finance

Course Overview

In addition to studying government in grade twelve, students will also master fundamental economic concepts, applying the tools (graphs, statistics, and equations) from other subject areas to the understanding of operations and institutions of economic systems. Studied in a historic context are the basic economic principles of micro and macroeconomics, international economics, comparative economics system measurement, and methods.

State Standards

Board Approval Date: June 22, 2022