

Invest in Children

What is Invest in Children?

Invest in Children is Cuyahoga County's public/private partnership serving the needs of young children from prenatal to kindergarten. We partner with Starting Point, the regional child care resource and referral agency, to provide technical assistance and training to all UPK programs. Universal Pre-Kindergarten is an award winning initiative administered by Invest in Children.

Invested in the health and safety of UPK students, families, and staff.

The COVID-19 pandemic has changed how families work, play and learn. Whether your child is attending UPK onsite or remotely, you can expect a high-quality early education experience.

Following the guidance of public health authorities, all UPK sites have developed policies specific to the pandemic.

In collaboration with the County's Emergency Operations Center, we are supporting every site with a supply of free personal protective equipment and have provided information and support to help UPK programs continue to operate during this unprecedented time.

We are Invest in Children, and we are invested in your family's future.

A Guide to Family-Centered Preschool

Invest in Children

Our children can do anything they dream of. It's our job to give them the tools they need to succeed.

By choosing a high-quality Universal Pre-Kindergarten (UPK) you are investing in your child's potential. You are investing in their hopes and dreams. You are investing in their future.

Congratulations!

The preschool you selected meets the gold standard of quality in Cuyahoga County. You can be confident that your child will receive the very best early learning experiences and will have the foundation to thrive in kindergarten and beyond. You can also rest assured that your family will receive the support it needs.

UPK is a team effort. And the partnership between our teachers, our staff and your family is essential. Together, we can set your child up for a lifetime of success.

Investing in Our Children Together.

UPK recognizes the vital role that caregivers play in a child's development and education. We want to support you as your child's first and most important teacher. As a UPK parent, you can expect:

- A strong partnership with UPK staff in support of your child's education
- To have frequent communication with our staff
- To learn about activities and resources that will help prepare your child and your family for success

Investing in Your Family Beyond the Classroom.

We are committed to your entire family's success. Which is why we offer a number of special services to support both your child and you.

Resources to Help Your Family Thrive

We offer a variety of support services for your family. This information can be found in the UPK Parent Resource Center and is accessible at all times. If your family needs additional resources, please ask, as other support services are available.

Action Team for Partnerships (ATP)

Each UPK site is a member of the National Network of Partnership Schools, an evidence-based family engagement program. UPK has won five awards for innovative family engagement practices. Through the Action Team for Partnership, parents, staff and community members meet regularly to create and plan family engagement goals and activities for the year that will benefit your family and your child.

ReadyRosie Educational Videos

We'll deliver links to short, 2-minute videos covering a range of topics that are being taught in the classroom. Just watch, play, and learn!

Support for UPK Caregivers

We're committed to helping you achieve your personal and family goals. We will send you valuable information about educational and employment opportunities. And count on us to offer personalized support to help guide you on your pathway to success!

UPK Parent Advisory Committee

A leadership group of UPK caregivers across Cuyahoga County partner with UPK staff members to support a stronger, family-centered, UPK community.
