Exclusions and Exemptions from School Attendance

Prior to placement of a child on the systematic release program the procedure shall be as follows:

- A. The child's parents or guardian, teacher, principal and other persons such as psychologist, counselor, shall confer to develop behavior objectives to fit the child's particular needs. At this conference the procedure for systematic release shall be explained. If new behavior objectives are needed, another conference shall be held.
- B. A conference involving the child, child's teacher, Principal and other persons as needed, shall be held to inform the child of the behavior objectives developed and the procedure for systematic release.
- C. When the child's behavior is such that in accordance with the developed behavior objectives the Principal feels the child should be released for the remainder of the day, the parents or guardian shall be informed by the Principal that the child is coming home.
- D. The teacher may nominate a candidate for this program by consulting with his or her Principal on the child's behavior patterns.
- E. The child is invited to return to school on the following day.
