Homecoming Week

Elizabeth Jensen

The 7th and 8th had a blast during homecoming week! During lunch on Monday, the students participated in the mock game “How Well Do You Know Your Best Friend?” On Tuesday the students competed in various food eating competitions: pie eating, pudding box eating, baby bottle water chugging, as well as fishing for donuts. Wednesday was the homecoming parade, the Jr High theme was video games and various students from the 7th and 8th grade dressed up as various characters from a multitude of video games. Thursday was the lunchtime fashion show, the students had just 20 minutes to create outfits out of paper and school supplies. Our final event, The Color War, took place on Friday. It was during this event, that the 8th graders earned enough points to be declared the winner and granted Total Domination!

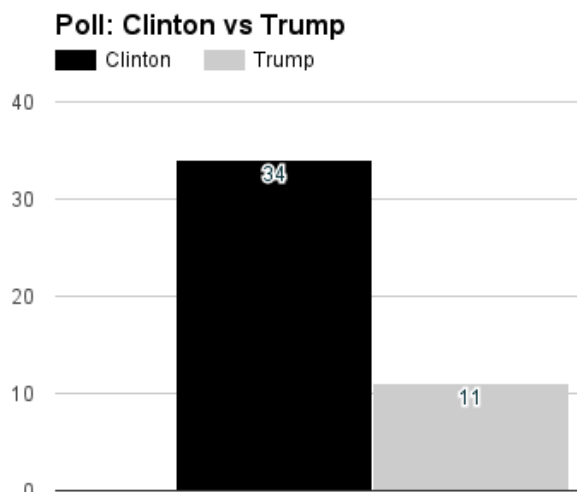

Student Survey: Presidential Election

Hillary Clinton is the first women to top a major party's presidential ticket. A former first lady, U.S senator and secretary of State, the Democratic Candidate hopes to become the 45th President of the United States

Few took Donald Trump's campaign seriously when he started running for President, but the brash New York businessman bulldozed his way past rival for GOP nomination. He hopes to become the 45th President of the United States.

Students of the Month

Manuel Medrano

Let's take a while to recognize the hard working people who are the student of the month. Marcelle Quintanilla (8th) and Angel Martinez (8th). “How does it feel to be student of the month? I ask Marcelle “It feels fabulous to be student of the month” she replied. Angel stated that, “It's cool I guess I feel student of the monthish”

Athletes of the Month

Jeffery Starks

Our August Athletes of the Month. Elizabeth Jensen and Mario Hernandez. They were chosen to be the athletes' of the month because of their hard work and participating in the unit there in. They try to work as hard as they can and that's what Coach Delaney and Mr. Ballard likes.

Happy Halloween!

Elizabeth Jensen

Another fun day for our students to enjoy themselves! This Halloween many students dressed up, but only a few were able to win titles for their effort. Our categories for the competition were the funniest, cutest, scariest, and weirdest. Jerin was the fortunate winner for the funniest , with an interesting costume of a person riding a bear. Miguel took first place for scariest, his costume being a horrifying clown. With almost no competition Daniela won the title of the cutest, with her Minnie Mouse costume. Lilly took the lead as funniest, being a guy from a favorite show of hers, and she truly looked hilarious. The Teacher choice award went to Lizzie, who was a Cookie Monster.

7th and 8th grade battle

April, Breahana, Ana

Here at the Beaver Dam Jr/Sr high, the 7th and 8th grade have a battle. The Student Council have activities that the 7th and 8th grade will participate, to battle. Some of the activities are the egg run, human tangle, fashion show, and many other fun activities we will be battling in. The egg run is where you race to the finish line holding an egg on a spoon, and if it drops you have to start over. The human tangle is where you have at least six people tangle their arms together and try to untangle everybody. The fashion show is when a group gets a certain amount of objects to dress one person up of the amount of time you have. The score for all the games this year were, egg toss- 7, human tangle- 8, 3 legged race- 7, teacher run- 8, tape escape- 8, fashion run- 8. This year the 7th and 8th grade battle as extremely exciting and fun for all!
