Author Spotlight J.K. Rowling

H*arry Potter* series creator, Joanne Kathleen Rowling, or better known as J. K. Rowling, is a famous British author. Her popular series have sold over 400 million copies and have been made into movies. In 2010, Rowlings' was given the title of the most influential woman in Great Britain.

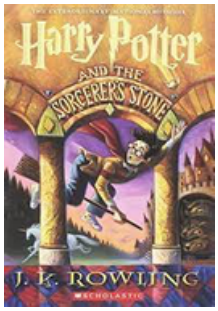

Rowling always had a fondness for writing and a very active imagination. After graduating from the University of Exter where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in French and Classics, she worked at Amnesty International in London as a researcher and bilingual secretary. However, it was while she waited for a delayed train that she created the Harry Potter character. Thus, her first book Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone was published in 1997. After the enormous success of her first book, Rowling went on to write a series of seven Harry Potter books. The third book in the series, Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire broke all sales records with 3 million copies selling in the United States in 48 hours. The last of the series, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows was released in July 2007.

Rowling has had a real rags to riches life story having lived on welfare for a period of time. She has also received many prestigious awards for her Harry Potter series. She currently lives in England with her husband and three children.
