Author Spotlight Jodi Picoult

Jodi Picoult is a #1 New York Times bestselling author of twenty-eight novels, including Wish You Were Here, The Book of Two Ways, A Spark of Light, Small Great Things, Leaving Time, The Storyteller, Lone Wolf, Sing You Home, House Rules, Handle with Care, Change of Heart, and My Sister's Keeper, and, with daughter Samantha van Leer, two young adult novels, Between the Lines and Off the Page.

Picoult's books have been translated into thirty-four languages in thirty-five countries. My Sister's Keeper became a popular movie released from New Line Cinema in 2009.

Picoult's two Young Adult novels, Between The Lines and Off The Page, co-written with her daughter Samantha Van Leer, has also been adapted and developed into a musical appearing in the Kansas City Repertory Theater and Off-Broadway production.

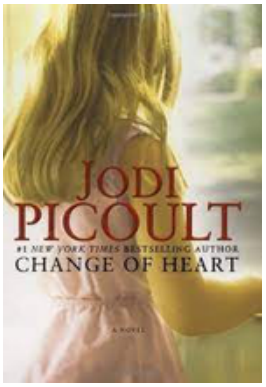

Picoult is the recipient of many awards, including the New England Bookseller Award for Fiction, the Alex Awards from the YALSA, a lifetime achievement award for mainstream fiction from the Romance Writers of America.

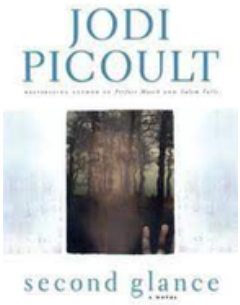

She holds honorary doctor of letters degrees from Dartmouth College and the University of New Haven.
