MAKING TUITION AFFORDABLE

Lakeside commits to meeting 100 percent of calculated need for tuition. Financial aid recipients also receive assistance for non-tuition expenses such as textbooks and music lessons. Financial aid recipients at Lakeside fall in to four income categories, which are based on gross total income for all members of a given family.

FAMILY INCOME

Less than $75,000

Between $75,000 and $110,000

Between $110,000 and $200,000

More than $200,000

YOUR EXPECTED TUITION

Families in this range will pay annual tuitions no higher than $250 each year.

On average, families in this range contribute 6 percent of gross total income toward all tuitions.

On average, families in this range contribute 7.5 percent of gross total income toward all tuitions.

Families in this income range will likely be asked to pay more than 12 percent toward all tuitions, up to the full cost of tuition, based on individual circumstances.
