The Lake Stevens School District No. 4 Board of Directors met in a Special Meeting at the Educational Service Center. The purpose of this meeting was to celebrate the 2022-2023 retirees. President Taylor called the meeting to order at 5:00 p.m.

Superintendent Collins invited Assistant Superintendent John Balmer to comment on the retirees. Dr. Balmer reported the employees collectively dedicated 560 years to the district, students, and community and he thanked them for their years of service. The Assistant Superintendent announced the administrators would take a few minutes to recognize the retirees in attendance from their buildings and they would be presented with a small token of appreciation.

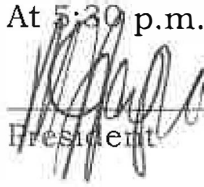

This year's retirees were Rodger Anderson, William Angdahl, Julie Banks, Betsy Baron, Robert Bolyard, Dawn Boyden, Eugenie Couste, Pamela Damon, Kathreen Doser, Kenneth Engman, MariLee Fronsman, Jeanine Granstrom, Lynne Grubb, Vicki Jimenez, Connie Manning, Lisa Rieks, Kimberly Rightmire, Chris Thompson, Kay Topp, Lee Schwarzmiller, Sarah Summers, Elana Walsh, and Daloris Waltz.

The retirees and their family members and friends were invited to attend a celebration following the presentations. Dr. Balmer told the employees they would be greatly missed. He wished them good luck and best wishes in their retirement. President Taylor stated that the retirees have touched so many children's lives. She said she is so grateful and excited for them to start their new journey.

Our students will be contributing members of society and lifelong learners, pursuing their passions and interests in an ever-changing world.
