

CELL PHONE DISCLAIMER POLICY

We realize the fast-changing phase of cell phone technology and understand that our students are beginning to experience a new feeling of independence and freedom with their cell use.

Yet, because of possibly distractive use, students will not need a cell phone during the school day and are asked to silence or turn them off and put them away. Some teachers, but not all, will allow cell phone use for educational purposes only; in these cases, students may use their cell appropriately within the classroom learning environment.

- When students need to contact parents, they may go to the Main Office to use the school phone.
- When parents need to reach students, they may call the Main Office at (808) 727-6612, and we will assist them.

HARMFUL TEXTING

Harmful Texting on social media (cyberbullying) and taking/posting unwanted photos, videos, or recordings of students and staff may lead to administrative/police investigation and possible disciplinary action.

Harmful Texting or Cyberbullying can have serious consequences, both legally and socially. In some cases, it can result in criminal charges and even imprisonment. Additionally, it can damage relationships and reputations, leading to social isolation and personal distress. It's important to be mindful of the impact of our words and actions online and to treat others with respect and kindness, even in digital spaces.
