

The Center for Culturally Proficient Educational Practice

presents

Access and Equity for All Students: A Cultural Proficiency 10-Day Certification Program

Virtual Workshop 9:00AM - 12:30PM (PT)
Team Coaching Sessions to be Arranged

Please join us for a 3-phase, interactive, professional learning experience

Outcomes from the professional learning experiences include:

- Narrowing and closing access and education gaps
- Reducing and eliminating disproportional outcomes among student ableness, languages, and discipline/behavior and academic placement
- Building professional capital (CTAs) within the district to grow and support large-scale change initiatives focused on access and equity for all students

Facilitated by: Mercedes Hubschmitt, Delores B. Lindsey & Randall B. Lindsey

Mercedes Hubschmitt is Director in Learning Support for the Poway Unified School District. She previously served as a teacher and high school counselor before her tenure as a central office administrator. While in Poway USD, she has been recognized by California State Assemblyman Brian Maienschein as Counselor of the Year.

Delores B. Lindsey, Ph.D. retired as Associate Professor of Education at California State University San Marcos, but did not retire from the education profession. As a former teacher, site administrator and county office administrator, Delores is well-known nationally and specifically in the north county area as coauthor of numerous books on Cultural Proficiency.

Randall B. Lindsey, Ph.D., coauthor of numerous books on Cultural Proficiency, is Emeritus Professor at California State University, Los Angeles. He has served as a teacher, an administrator, executive director of a non-profit corporation, and served as administrator at the University of Redlands and California Lutheran University.
