AP Seminar: AP Capstone Year 1

Feb 12 Info Session Link

Grades: 10-12

Description of Class:

- Independent research, collaborative teamwork, presentation and writing skills.
- Investigate real-world issues from multiple perspectives.

Weekly Hours of Homework/Studying:

- Varies depending on unit

Prerequisites:

- 3.0 min College Prep GPA
- B or better in English (recommended)
- Recommended for
  - students in GPS, PLTW, and other pathways
  - students taking subject-specific AP courses

Summer Assignment: Online Class Survey

Frequency & Style of Assessments:

1st Semester:

- Quizzes, AP Practice Tests, AP Practice Papers, AP Practice Presentations

2nd Semester:

- Weekly and End-of-Year Reflection
- AP Performance Tasks and Written Exam

Amount & Frequency of Written Work:

- Multiple drafts of research-based essays
- Quarterly In-Class Practice Essays

Amount of Reading Required:

Fall: 1-2 textbook chapters or articles per week + research required for projects

Spring: Research as required for projects

Number of Projects/Presentations:
2 per semester (Paper + Presentation)

Spring projects/presentations count as part of overall AP Score