

Daily Bulletin Wednesday, September 27

Ellen Ochoa was the first Hispanic woman in the world to go into space. Since that time, she has become the first Hispanic, and second woman ever to become the director of the Johnson Space Center in Houston Texas. What an exciting and proud accomplishment.

Students, if you are serious about participating in Disney's Moana Jr, our school musical, please join the Theatre Google Classroom and come to the Parent and Student Meeting this evening at 6pm in the library to sign up for Auditions. Both parent and student must attend. This is the only time signups for Auditions will be taken. Code is on the flyers.

Interesting Fact

The Amazon rainforest covers 7 million square kilometers (5% of the Earth's total land area).

Thought for the Day

You're braver than you believe, and stronger than you seem,
and smarter than you think."

— A.A. Milne

HAVE A GREAT DAY, JAGUARS

