Mrs. Kirby-Gonzalez
5th Grade

Sarah Kirby-Gonzalez was named the Folsom Cordova district 2010 Teacher of the Year. Sarah is a National Board Certified Teacher and FCUSD GATE certificated. In 2008, Sarah earned her master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction from California State University, Sacramento. She is a Teacher Consultant for the Area 3 Writing Project at University California, Davis. She has been a History Day coach to her students since 2005 and was named Sacramento County History Day Teacher of the Year in 2009. Sarah was a participant in the Teaching American History Grant and attended the Colonial Williamsburg Teacher Institute as well as a seminar on Benjamin Franklin in Philadelphia, sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities. Sarah also teaches a summer writing course to fourth and fifth grade students through the Academic Talent Search program at Sacramento State University, Sacramento and is an active member of ACT, Accomplished California Teachers. Outside of the district, Sarah serves an elected role as a board trustee in the Washington Unified School District, located in West Sacramento. Sarah's most prized role is parenting her two young girls along with her husband, Adam.