

TIPS TO HELP YOUR CHILD SUCCEED AND GET THE MOST OUT OF IB MYP

- Limit television and video games on school nights.

- Check that your child is assuming his/her home learning responsibilities daily. Use the electronic grade book (Power School) to monitor his/her progress.

- Talk with your child about school. Ask specific questions about their classes.
- Make sure your child has a quiet area to complete home learning assignments.

- Set aside a specific time for home learning every day – with no interruptions.

- Make sure your child reads for at least a half-hour (30 min.), in addition to completing home learning assignments.

- Use the student planner and email to communicate with teachers.

- Praise your child in all successes, no matter how small.

- Use rewards to improve behavior, grades, and effort in school.

- Encourage your child to participate in after school activities, sports, and clubs.

- Read, watch, or listen to national and international news and discuss their impact.

- Ask your child open-ended questions to allow them to define and express their opinions.
