

Mrs. Kat Bahry, a former National Board-Certified teacher, and has been working for the FCUSD for 25 years. She holds a BA and MS in Criminal Justice and a MA in Education in Instruction and Curriculum as well as various professional certificates. Taking on leadership roles within the district has paved the way for Mrs. Bahry to become a former member of many prestigious organizations such as the Teaching American History Grant, Folsom-Cordova Writing Project Inquiry Group, and Trainers of BEST. Mrs. Bahry created the district's Opportunity Program that services those students facing academic and behavioral challenges. Folsom Chamber of Commerce recognized her as the 2018 Educator of the Year. As 2019 site Support Person of the Year, thrice named site and 2013 FCUSD's Teacher of the Year, she has worn many hats from lead teacher to advisor for several after school clubs and events and has been an instructor with the CSUS Academic Talent Search. As a former professional entertainer with theatre companies such as Sacramento Music Circus and Great America, Mrs. Bahry continues to teach, choreograph, and perform throughout the greater Sacramento area. Currently, she enjoys being involved with local community organizations such as volunteering with the Folsom Police Department (CAPS) and is on the Folsom Arts and Culture Commission.
