

Do you know your sports medicine team?

Are you sidelined due to pain or injury?

Let the athletic trainers at KORT help you resume play.

Our athletic trainers and physical therapists help athletes return to what they love. Using the most up-to-date, evidence-based clinical research, we offer a wide variety of treatment techniques including:

- Injury prevention training
- Concussion rehabilitation
- Performance enhancement
- Pre-/post-operative care
- Return-to-sport programming
- ACL Prepare to Play program
- ...and more!

With coordinated care between the athletic trainer, physician, physical therapist, coaches, caregivers and players, getting back to being game-ready is seamless.
