Research shows parents and caregivers can take the following actions to help reduce the risk of SIDS and other sleep-related causes of infant (less than 1 year old) death:

- Always place babies on their backs to sleep for every sleep.
- Use a firm sleep surface, such as a mattress in a safety-approved crib, covered by a fitted sheet.
- Have the baby share your room, not your bed. Your baby should not sleep in an adult bed, on a couch, or on a chair alone, with you, or with anyone else.
- Keep soft objects, such as pillows and loose bedding out of your baby's sleep area.
- Prevent exposure to smoking during pregnancy and after birth because these are important risk factors for SIDS. The risk of SIDS is even stronger when a baby shares a bed with a smoker. To reduce risk, do not smoke during pregnancy, and do not smoke or allow smoking around your baby.

Infant Safe Sleep Practices

On December 7, 2016 DEL filed a preproposal statement of inquiry in anticipation of incorporating current health and safety standards in its rules that instruct early learning providers on safe sleep practices.

This rule making is part of a larger effort to develop rules to implement a single set of licensing standards for child care and the early childhood education and assistance program as directed by Section 3, Chapter 7, Laws of 2015, 3rd sp. sess. The safe sleep related rule making is proceeding separately because DEL believes that rules related to safe sleep standards are critical to the safety of children and need to be enacted before the rule making to align standards is expected to be completed.

Proposed rules were filed February 13, 2017 for publication in the March 1st edition of the State Register. A March 23 hearing is planned at 10:00 AM in Cascade Conference Room 130, 1110 Jefferson Street [DEL State Office], Olympia, Washington. Comments on the proposed rules may be made at the hearing or emailed to rules@del.wa.gov. March 23 is the last day that comments will be accepted.
