

BE COMPASSIONATE
STAY CURIOUS

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL OF KIGALI

ISK Student Profile

Curious

ISK students inquire about their learning, their environment, and the world around them.

- Participates consistently.
- Engages in classroom activities and/or discussions.
- Give effort in each class.
- Completes all work in a timely manner.
- Displays organizational skills.
- Uses technology safely and effectively.

Compassionate

ISK students show empathy, and care towards everyone they encounter.

- Respect self and others.
- Responds compassionately to others.
- Solves problems in positive ways.
- Makes positive choices for the shared school resources.
- Show empathy by envisioning themselves in others' positions and circumstances
- Works collaboratively in groups.
- Demonstrates a service mindset, putting others before yourself and contributing to the betterment of those around you.

Engaged

ISK students are active participants in change for their local and global community.

- Participate in community activities
- Follow school expectations and procedures
- Make efforts to engage with the local and global community.

Critical Thinkers

ISK students question, and analyze information in the world around them.

- They ask questions, and feel comfortable to make mistakes.
- They understand other points of view.