

FERPA Directory Information Notice

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), a Federal law, requires that Greenville ISD, with certain exceptions, obtain your written consent prior to the disclosure of personally identifiable information from your child's education records. However, Greenville ISD may disclose appropriately designated "directory information" without written consent, unless you have advised the Greenville ISD to the contrary in accordance with Greenville ISD procedures. The primary purpose of directory information is to allow the Greenville ISD to include information from your child's education records in certain school publications. Examples include:

- A playbill, showing your student's role in a drama production;
- The annual yearbook;
- Honor roll or other recognition lists;
- Graduation programs; and
- Sports activity sheets, such as for wrestling, showing weight and height of team members.

Directory information, which is information that is generally not considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if released, can also be disclosed to outside organizations without a parent's prior written consent. Outside organizations include, but are not limited to, companies that manufacture class rings or publish yearbooks. In addition, two federal laws require local educational agencies (LEAs) receiving assistance under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, as amended (ESEA) to provide military recruiters, upon request, with the following information – names, addresses and telephone listings – unless parents have advised the LEA that they do not want their student's information disclosed without their prior written consent. [Note: These laws are Section 9528 of the ESEA (20 U.S.C. § 7908) and 10 U.S.C. § 503(c).] Greenville ISD provides some directory information to partners in education who provide services to better serve our students, parents, and staff.

If you do not want Greenville ISD to disclose any or all of the types of information designated below as directory information from your child's education records without your prior written consent, you must notify the Greenville ISD in writing within 10 days of student enrollment.
