

Entrepreneur: Charles Schwab

By: Dylan B.

2023

Charles Schwab

- Charles Schwab was born on July 29th 1937 in Sacramento, California
- His parents Pauline Farabagh and John Schwab (coming from German background)
- I choose him because of his complex yet simple businesses that all made a fortune

Who Inspired Him?

- Charles Schwab made his insurance business successful by making the process quicker and giving customers reassurance that the people actually care
- Charles had once gone to an insurance broker he felt did not care at all about his finances
- He then started his own business in 1973 with the purchase of and name change of the previous business, First Commander

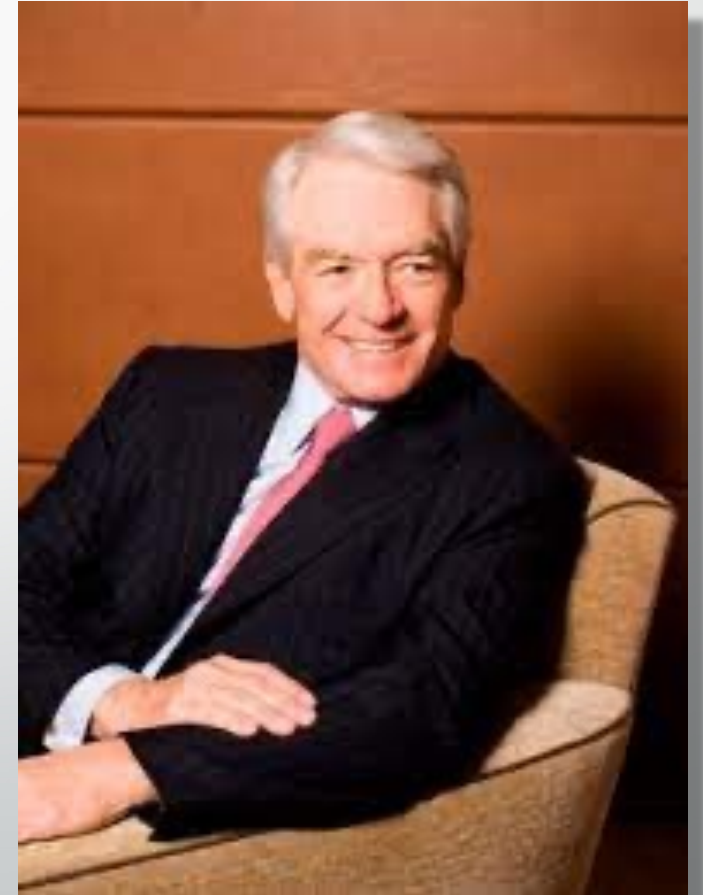

The logo for Charles Schwab is displayed on a blue square background. It features the word "charles" in a white, italicized serif font, positioned above the word "SCHWAB" in a white, all-caps, bold serif font.

charles
SCHWAB

What is an Entrepreneur?

An entrepreneur is someone who finds success starting a business by taking risks and pushing out their ideas or services to other people for a cost.

Charles Schwab is an entrepreneur because he took the risk buying another business and making it his own for the chance to make money.

Summary

- Charles Schwab was an entrepreneur because he took the risks necessary and put in the time and effort to grow his business and became ranked #139th with net worth at 13.2B
- He shows that a business, given time, and with effort put in can become incredibly successful

