CENTER GROVE, IN--Cayman Jarvis, a junior at Center Grove High School, has won the 2013 Prudential Spirit of Community Award, a nationwide program honoring young people for outstanding acts of volunteerism.

Center Grove High School staff members nominated Cayman. "We were excited to nominate Cayman for the award and so proud that he was named one of two state winners," Principal Matt Shockley said.

"Cayman serves as a powerful role model to our entire school community about how one person can make a difference," Shockley added.

As a State Honoree, Cayman will receive an award of $1,000, an engraved silver medallion, and an all-expense-paid trip to Washington D.C., for a series of national recognition events. On March 21, the Center Grove Community School Corporation Board of School Trustees will recognize him for demonstrating leadership in community service. A representative from Prudential will be on hand for the medallion presentation.

Based on the number of hours Cayman has volunteered, he also qualified for the President's Volunteer Service Award, which recognizes Americans of all ages who have volunteered significant amounts of their time to serve their communities and their country.

Additional information regarding this award can be found on the attached February 5, 2013 press release from Prudential Financial, Inc.
